Thursday, June 15

*A man stated that between 8:30-11 p.m. June 14, an unknown person entered his son's travel trailer in the 6600 block of Rockydale Road. The burglar allegedly stole a .45 caliber high-point carbine rifle with a blue barrel, similar to an AK7, and a Ruger P89 9mm. semi-automatic handgun. Titles to several vehicles, a set of keys, and $800 cash also disappeared. A report was filed for burglary and first-degree theft.

*A guy claimed that his father's home had recently been burglarized, and he saw the suspect's vehicle in the 200 block of W. Watkins Street at 10:46 a.m. He watched the primer-gray Ford F350 long-bed pickup truck as it traveled east on a road by the school or the park. The driver was a white guy with dark brown hair, and the passenger was a gal with black hair. He didn't know what color shirt the suspect was wearing, but did notice his dirty hands.

*Oregon State Police (OSP) informed JCSO of a driver in a tan Toyota Camry who was swerving in and out of traffic near Redwood Hwy. and Reeves Creek Road at 2:17 p.m. There were no patrol units in the area, so it was tagged as beyond available resources by JCSO. (The ditch will get them.)

*There were no sounds of talking or disturbance during a 911 call from the 1000 block of Lakeshore Drive at 2:22 p.m.

Friday, June 16

*Gold Coast Security reported an activated alarm at an ATM in the 100 block of S. Redwood Hwy. at 10:23 a.m. It turned out to be bank employees in training.

Saturday, June 17

*At 12:04 p.m. a damsel in distress in the 300 block of S. Kerby Avenue claimed she needed police right away, and a guy could be heard yelling in the background. Her vehicle was recently stolen, then recovered after a brief pursuit, but she was hesitant to involve law enforcement due to fear of retaliation. She phoned 911 again at 12:45 p.m., and said she was fine, but she sounded hesitant, so deputies went to check on her. The guy left before their arrival, and there was no evidence of a crime, so the gal was advised of her options.

Sunday, June 18

*A fellow stated that just after midnight a gal took his gray 2000 Chrysler from the 24500 block of Redwood Hwy., and his phone and wallet were in the van. He initially requested that his probation officer be contacted so he could get a ride to Cave Junction, but when he was reminded that it was Sunday, he started walking. He later admitted that he allowed her to use his car, so there was no crime committed.

*The driver of a Honda Accord was let off the hook at 12:03 p.m. after being pulled over near Caves Hwy. and S. Junction Avenue. He was warned for hands-free device, no registration, no proof of insurance, and expired registration.

*The operator of a black Toyota 4-Runner was pulled over at 12:45 p.m. near Schumacher Street and S. Hussey Avenue. He was warned for FTOTCD, failure to provide registration, and failure to inform DMV of address change. He was cited into CJ Municipal Court for driving with a suspended license, and failure to provide proof of insurance.

*At 1:31 p.m. a fellow was obstructing traffic by walking in the middle of the roadway at 213 S. Redwood Hwy. He explained that he was trying to contact law enforcement regarding his stolen vehicle. His probation officer advised that he was an emotionally disturbed person, which was readily apparent. The eccentric fellow was warned for disorderly conduct.

*A motorist in a Chevy Tahoe was warned for improper turn at 2:49 p.m. near Raintree Drive and Sherier Road.

*A deputy patrolled near the East Fork bridge at 2:58 p.m.
