ROCKS ...

When asked what she likes about IV Rocks, Jones added, “Rocks are such an easy way item to paint on and when I see finders posting their excitement it just delights me! Anyone can paint a rock. Leaving it as a gift to someone you may never meet is an act of love and community kindness that I believe we could use some more of in Cave Junction.”

Also, according to Jones, there is a small group called “Positive Playgroup” at Head Start created by Jennifer Stebbins that tries to get together once a week to play together. A couple of weeks ago Head Start organized a rock painting event for all of the children and families. You can join this group by visiting www.facebook.com/positiveplaygroup.

Currently, IV Rocks has 358 members and if you would like to join you can visit www.facebook.com/
