

Tales from the Rural Patrol

(Editor’s Note: Factual information for ‘Tales’ is provided by official law enforcement agencies. All persons listed are innocent until proven guilty in a court of law. Charges can be amended or dismissed.)

Monday, April 23

*A gal asked for a cup of coffee at the Illinois Valley Golf Course at 9:20 a.m. She was well aware that she has a warrant, but she apparently thought dying her hair blond would be sufficient camouflage.

*Josephine County Animal Control requested backup when they served a citation to an individual in the 1900 block of Lone Mountain Road. Norman Leslie Berger, 61, was arrested on a Jackson County Sheriff’s Office felony warrant for failure to appear for possession of hydrocodone, felon in possession of firearm, and assaulting a public safety officer.

Tuesday, April 24

*There was a 15-minute cat fight between two gals near a green Chevy Blazer in the 100 block of Ollis Road at 12:18 p.m.

*A tall guy with a long, black, greasy ponytail was driving a gold-colored SUV near E. Watkins Street and S. Junction Avenue at 9:50 a.m. He started quizzing a couple at Jubilee Park about where they were from, what they were doing, and told them, “Leave; families fight and die trying to leave here!” (CJ’s Welcome Committee.)

*Jerry’s Towing was notified that a vehicle near Rockydale Road and Redwood Hwy. had been stolen out of California at 3:24 p.m. Jerry waited for verification from law enforcement before towing it for the registered owner in Red Bluff.

Wednesday, April 25

*Two fugitives with felony warrants were arrested in the 100 block of S. Kerby Avenue at 12:19 p.m. Robin Joseph McCafferty, 37, was charged with failure to appear for dangerous drugs. James Charles Warner III, 26, failed to appear on a variety of charges, including possession of heroin, fourth-degree assault, strangulation, and second-degree criminal mischief. They were detained in Josephine County Jail.

*Three transients were seen casing cars near Siskiyou Village, in case anyone reports a theft. The trio consisted of two guys, one named Lou, and a strawberry-blond dame with a dragon tattoo on her arm.

*At 3:17 p.m. a misguided fellow confronted a woman in a blue 2000 Ford Contour parked in the 100 block of S. Redwood Hwy. He threatened to break the windows and steal the car, because he believed it belonged to him.

Thursday, April 26

*Josephine County Sheriff’s Office (JCSO) assisted Illinois Valley Fire District with a grass fire in the 3300 block of Rockydale Road at 6:01 p.m. No structures were threatened.

Friday, April 27

*On April 20, a gullible gal in the 1200 block of Dick George Road thought she was talking to a credit card consolidation company, so she provided them with multiple credit card account numbers as well as her address, Social Security number, etc. She was provided with an incident number and Oregon Consumer Protection Hotline information.

*Contractors in the 100 block of S. Kerby Avenue inspected an air conditioner and found that it had been vandalized. Someone thought it would be cool to break the copper pipe to get the freon. The estimated replacement cost is nearly $7,000.

Saturday, April 28

*At 12:15 p.m. a guy wearing nothing but a T-shirt and a couple of taser points was last seen fleeing from deputies down a creek bed near MP 4 of Sanger Peak Road. (Don’t look, Ethel.)

Sunday, April 29

*A cheapskate shopper didn’t bother paying before he walked out of a grocery store in the 200 block of W. Watkins Street April 28. He loaded $500 worth of groceries into a green 1988 Dodge utility vehicle with Oregon plates. His photo and license plate number were provided to JCSO, and a report was filed for third-degree theft.

*JCSO apprehended a fugitive in the 1100 block of Deer Creek Road at 10:57 a.m. Brandon George Call, 26, was detained in Jo Co Jail on a Jackson County felony warrant for failure to appear for fourth-degree assault.

*The driver of a Honda Civic with expired tags was pulled over by law enforcement in the 2400 block of Laurel Road at 2:42 p.m. He smelled of marijuana and alcohol, had slurred speech, slow movements, and blood-shot eyes. Dustin James Herrell, 22, was charged with driving under the influence of intoxicants, and cited to appear in court. He was also warned for driving while suspended violation, no insurance, and improper display.

*At 3:27 p.m. a bad driver in a rattle-can green Chevy Tahoe was not staying between the lines, with speeds varying from 20-50 mph. He rolled into a ditch in the 2700 block of Lakeshore Drive, then jumped out waving his arms around. (Too many rattle-can fumes?)

Can you hear your alarm?

If you can’t, consider getting a strobe light that will flash or a bed shaker that will shake when the smoke alarm sounds.
