

Tales from the Rural Patrol

(Editor’s Note: Factual information for ‘Tales’ is provided by official law enforcement agencies. All persons listed are innocent until proven guilty in a court of law. Charges can be amended or dismissed.)

Monday, May 7

*A resident at Kerby High Pines was scammed out of $1,000 by a Facebook floozie who claimed that she loved him. He sent her i-Tunes gift cards so she would visit him, but she claimed she was ill and couldn’t make it. She then requested more money, but fortunately, an alert clerk refused to deliver his $900 MoneyGram. When law enforcement investigated, a woman claimed that she had no knowledge of the situation, even though the name and address linked to the i-Tunes cards came back to her. The fellow admitted that the explicit photos that he received did not resemble the suspect.

*A chap was digging living in his make-shift trailer in the 100 block of S. Redwood Hwy., until he was warned for camping within city limits at 12:43 p.m. He was also trespassed from Diggin’ Livin’ Farm.

Tuesday, May 8

of items, not just once but twice in the past week. The crooks ripped off a store in the 25000 block of Redwood Hwy. May 5 and again May 7. Video footage was reviewed, and the subjects were identified. A report was filed for third-degree theft.

*An Acer laptop computer and charger were loaned to a gal in the 900 block of Caves Hwy. April 1. She claimed that she was on probation and wasn’t going anywhere, then she took the laptop and went to Nevada. (“Probation” might be considered a red flag, not collateral.) Her husband told a deputy that the laptop had been sent out to be fixed, and as soon as it was mailed back, they would return the computer. The Acer owner was provided with options regarding filing small claims. (Just in case.)

*A landlord in the 11200 block of Redwood Hwy. claimed that a tenant paid part of her rent with a Sears Craftsman weed-eater. When she moved out, she took the lawn tool with her. A deputy provided information on civil options.

*Ericka Dean, 25, was arrested at 12:24 p.m. near S. Redwood Hwy. and E. Watkins Street. Dean was detained in Josephine County (JoCo) Jail on a felony warrant from Grants Pass Department of Public Safety, charged with failure to appear for felony possession of heroin and misdeemeanor possession of meth.

*James Randolph Bellah, 40, was detained in JoCo Jail following his arrest at 5:04 p.m. at 620 E. River Street. Bellah was charged with parole violation/sex offense. He was also charged with failure to register as a sex offender, and unlawfully being in a location where children regularly congregate, in this case Head Start. (Déjà vu from April 30?)

Wednesday, May 9

*Fuel was siphoned from two vehicles in the 100 block of Holton Creek Road at 2 a.m.

*At 3:13 p.m., there was a report of a guy who was squatting on vacant property without a septic system in the 100 block of E. O’Brien Street. He was trespassing by driving through private property on an orange quad.

Thursday, May 10

*Randy Wayne Davis, Sr., 51, used a hammer to assault a woman in the 500 block of Schumacher Street. Three young children were present at the time. Law enforcement nailed him, and he was detained in JoCo Jail, charged with assault and menacing.

*A Yamaha 250 XT Endro motorcycle was stolen from the 200 block of W. Lister Street between 6-10 p.m. May 9.

*A resident in the 9100 block of Caves Hwy. had issues with neighbors trespassing and destroying waterlines between April 20-27. On May 9, he was fed up, and he shot the unwanted visitor in the buttocks with a Taurus Judge .45 caliber revolver. The butt-hurt vandal then rolled down the hill, climbed up the bank, got in his pickup truck and left. (They don’t call it “Judge” for nothing.)

Friday, May 11

*And now, for the new season of Queen of Bronze. Stay tuned for more complaints of loud music and bullets flying through the woods.

*Whoever you are in a brown Durango, it’s pretty bad to have three different calls on your driving inabilities when you were in the 200 block of W. Watkins Street at 1:57 p.m.

*A bright red 1990 Ford Econoline van was stolen from the 200 block of Ollis Road overnight May 10.

*On May 11, a chap was standing in front of his house in the 900 block of Caves Hwy. when a jerk swerved his car toward him and said, “Come on old man, I thought you wanted a part of me, I will give you the first swing.” The mellow fellow offered no reply.

Saturday, May 12

*A guy in the 100 block of Mesa Verde Drive was creating problems by yelling at nearby neighbors, throwing cherry bombs at their dog, and shooting his gun at 8:25 a.m.

*An individual sold a truck to a friend, but the frenemy never paid for the vehicle before selling it to someone in the 9400 block of Takilma Road.

Sunday, May 13

*Water wars were developing in the 100 block of Forest Creek Road at 10:54 a.m. A gal allows her neighbors to use her well, but one of them was shutting off her water and swearing at her. Information was provided regarding the growth of marijuana and code enforcement.

*An angry mother-in-law in the 100 block of N. Boundary Avenue became aggressive and broke a door and coffee table at 11:46 a.m. Jodi Dendy was upset because Jared Davis sent her daughter to the hospital. She head-butted her daughter’s boyfriend, so he punched her. Davis was taken into custody for third-degree assault because he recklessly caused physical injury when he threw a glass candle, which struck his girlfriend in the side of the head. Dendy was arrested for fourth-degree assault. They were both detained in JoCo Jail.

Microwave Oven SAFETY

With busy lives, families rely on the microwave oven as a quick way to heat up a meal, warm up a drink or defrost dinner. While the convenience of the microwave oven is something we take for granted, safety should not be. By following a few simple safety tips you can prevent painful burns

SAFETY TIPS

- PURCHASE a microwave oven that is listed by a qualified testing laboratory. Make sure to complete and return the product registration card. This way the manufacturer can reach you if there is a recall on the product.
- PLUG the microwave oven directly into the wall outlet — never use an extension cord.
- MAKE sure the microwave oven is at a safe height, within easy reach of all users.
- OPEN food slowly, away from the face. Hot steam or the food itself can cause burns.
- FOOD heats unevenly in microwave ovens. Stir and test before eating or giving to children.
- NEVER heat a baby bottle in the microwave. Since a microwave oven heats unevenly, it can create hot pockets, leading to burns. Warm a bottle in a bowl of warm—not hot or boiling—water, or by running it under the tap.

MICROWAVE USE

Always supervise children when they are using a microwave oven.

Use only microwave-safe food containers or dishes. Never use aluminum foil or metal in a microwave oven.

If you have a fire in the microwave, leave the door closed, turn the oven off and unplug it from the wall. If the fire does not go out, get outside and call 9-1-1.

FACT

Scald burns are the leading cause of injury from microwave ovens.
