

Tales from the Rural Patrol

(Editor’s Note: Factual information for ‘Tales’ is provided by official law enforcement agencies. All persons listed are innocent until proven guilty in a court of law. Charges can be amended or dismissed.)

Monday, October 8

*A fugitive was apprehended in the 100 block of Dogwood Lane at 10:30 a.m. and detained in Josephine County Jail (JCJ) for probation detainer and a warrant. Joseph V. Guess, 41, had a felony warrant from Grants Pass Department of Public Safety for failure to appear for possession of controlled substance (PCS) meth.

*On Oct. 7 at 10:24 a.m., a guy abandoned a blue Honda Civic and slithered off into the brush near Lurline Lane and Laurel Road. The Honda was impounded and towed.

*An unsavory character was warned and trespassed from several locations in the 300 block of S. Redwood Hwy. at 12:02 p.m.

Tuesday, October 9

*A blue 2009 Chevy was stolen from the 33100 block of Redwood Hwy. on Oct. 8 at 10:21 p.m. Inside the Chevy was a black lab that was recovering from surgery. The man found his vehicle and dog near Tartar Gulch, but a firearm was still missing.

*A chap in the 200 block of Cowboy Way was unable to prove that a neighbor was shooting towards him from the 400 block of Queen of Bronze.

*Nearly 30 marijuana plants were stolen, and security equipment was destroyed between Oct. 7-8 at a recreational grow site in the 23700 block of Redwood Hwy. A report was filed for first-degree theft, first-degree criminal mischief, and second-degree burglary.

*A shed at Lorna Byrne Middle School was broken into between 3:30 p.m. on Oct. 5 and 8 a.m. on Oct. 8. Dunces stole a Stihl backpack blower and pressure washer. A report was filed for second-degree theft and second-degree burglary.

*A very large Anatolian shepherd named Moose was stolen from the 200 block of White School Road on Oct. 5. A witness noticed an older man parked in a white van with the back door open, and he heard the guy calling the livestock guardian dog. A fellow that goes by the nickname of Sketchy or Shifty is a possible suspect.

*At 2:45 a.m. a dude carrying a skateboard tried to cut into the Blue Rhino propane cage at a business in the 200 block of W. Watkins Street.

*Melissa Lowenstein, 52, was arrested at 2:10 p.m. and detained in JCJ because she was trespassing in the 200 block of W. Watkins Street.

Wednesday, October 10

*A woman, 64, was confirmed deceased in the 500 block of Fernwood Drive at 7:58 a.m.

*A fellow in the 500 block of Jackadel Lane received a phone call from a company promoting state-of-the-art shoulder braces. He provided his Social Security and Medicare numbers to the sales person, before the call was disconnected. The man was provided with options for identity theft monitoring through his credit card company and credit bureaus.

*Vintage, handmade, sterling silver show bits with flowers and long shanks disappeared from the 10000 block of Takilma Road, probably Sept. 19.

*A check from April 2016 was forged, then deposited in an ATM at the Umpqua Bank in Cave Junction.

Thursday, October 11

*A possibly intoxicated character hauling a skate board was upset and yelling at traffic near the 900 block of N. Old Stage Road at 2:37 p.m.

Friday, October 12

*A highly intoxicated fellow

carried an open beer can and a blond wood walking stick onto a Jo. Co. transit bus between 4:30 and 5 p.m. Oct. 11. When he arrived in Selma, the rude red-haired guy threatened to smash a passenger’s head through the window of the bus.

*A couple of squatters had a fire and lots of visitors in the 600 block of Frederick Court at 12:30 p.m. They had previously been trespassed, but one had paperwork stating that he can stay on the property until Dec. 12, 2018. A deputy was in contact with the bank and code enforcement.

Saturday, October 13

*At 1:52 p.m., there was a report of a man wearing a black mask over his face and carrying a backpack in the 1200 block of Green Valley Drive. Justin Taylor, 30, was detained in JCJ for probation detainer.

*The driver of a white 2012 Dodge Ram 2500 was upset because he had to slam on his brakes in the 29900 block of Redwood Hwy. at 2:31 p.m. The sudden stop caused a cake to slide to the floor, so he threw the confection onto the hood and windshield of the other vehicle. (Can’t smash your cake and eat it too.)

*A silver-colored 2001 Hyundai Sonata was stolen from the 2500 block of Holland Loop between 1 and 3 p.m. Skid marks indicated the vehicle went into Cave Junction.

*Meanwhile in Grants Pass, a concerned citizen in the 3600 block of Upper River Road reported hearing fighting and a neighbor screaming in fear and/or pain at 4:07 p.m. Everything was fine; fans were loudly cheering during an Oregon Ducks game.

Sunday, October 14

*At 2:01 a.m. a woman was bitten by a dog owned by squatters on her property in the 5100 block of Dick George Road. The very vicious pit bull responded well to O.C. spray, but the deputy was unable to transport the canine. The aggressive dog was nowhere to be found when Jo. Co. Animal Control officers arrived at 9:43 a.m.

*At 10:20 a.m. a guy on an older 1991 Honda dirt bike led JCSD deputies on a wild goose chase from Caves Hwy. and Sawyer Avenue to Hays Cut Off. The motorcyclist was detained in JCJ for reckless driving and attempting to elude police-felony. He was also cited to appear on Nov. 1 for DWS-V, driving uninsured, operating an unregistrable vehicle on a roadway, and violation of basic rules of the road.

*A generous, homeless Robin Hood gave a very nice BCA bicycle to the camp host at Jubilee Park at 2:07 p.m.
