Merry Christmas to all of our valued clients, customers,
friends and families.

Home will need total restoration for someone who is willing to tackle it. Its sitting on a portion of the foundation that is logs. No heat, but does have water and power. For now, the home is protecting the home site, due to the zoning regulations. There is a sep. structure which is very large, (approx. 2880 sq. ft.) that has been approved as an agriculture building. It does have power, plumbing & its own sep. septic system. End of a long, recorded easement from a paved county road. owner says 3 wells on the property. Huge level area close by the old home, was a garden at one time, would be a good area for animals?
