Glen Allen Lloyd died May 27, 2019, in American Fork, Utah at the age of 88. Glen was born to Allen and Clara Lloyd Dec. 18, 1930, in Taft, Calif. Glen grew up in Taft and graduated from Taft Union High School. He attended the University of Utah where he received a degree in mechanical engineering. He served two years in the Army Signal Corps during the Korean War before serving as a missionary in the Northwestern States mission in Oregon and Washington. He returned to Taft and joined his father in business. Glen married his sweetheart, Doloris Huerta, July 3, 1959, in the St. George temple. He was active in church and youth activities and served as Bishop of the Taft Ward of the Church of the Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

Glen became president of Lloyd Drilling Company and co-owner of Holly Oil Company. He was elected to two terms on the board of directors of Taft Union High School. He was involved in real estate development and a founding director of Taft National Bank. He loved to ski, both snow and water, enjoying family trips to the mountains and lakes. He was also an avid pilot and enjoyed flying his twin engine airplane whenever he could. After retirement, he moved to Oregon, where he loved spending time with his family at his home in Cave Junction and at the cabin he built on the Illinois River.

He is survived by his wife of 60 years, Doloris, his sister LaRae Hollingsworth, his children: Bryce (Mylene), Robin Decker (Drew), and Barry (Shawna), and 9 grandchildren: Derek, Ellie, Allen, Michael, Holly, Megan, Andrea, Catherine and Ethan. He was preceded in death by his parents, Allen and Clara and his eldest son, Mark.

Funeral Services will be Monday, June 3, 2019, at 2 p.m. at Hull & Hull Funeral Directors at 612 NW "A" Street in Grants Pass, Oregon. Viewing will be at 1 p.m. before the funeral at the same location. Interment will follow the funeral at Hillcrest Memorial Park, 945 NE Hillcrest Dr, Grants Pass, Oregon.

Remembrances may be made the Perpetual Education Fund of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

Gayle Rita Roux, 84, of Grants Pass, Oregon, previously from O'Brien, Oregon, went to be with her Lord May 17, 2019. She was born Jan. 11, 1935, to Thomas and Lillian (Scott) Sullivan, in Toledo, Ohio.

She always wanted a big family and went on to have eight children. She lived her life without any regrets, was an excellent mother, a shrewd business owner several times over and embarked on many different crafts, such as knitting, soap making, ceramics and gardening to name a few. Whatever she put her mind to she would accomplish it. She was the epitome of what a mother should be. She will greatly be missed.

She was proud of her large family with eight children, Abbigayle, Mathew, Paula, Gayle (deceased), Sean (deceased), Lillian, Donna and Genevieve. She had 20 grandchildren, many great-grandchildren and a few great greats.

Most people during their life have never saved another's life. In her teens, Gayle saved not only boy from drowning but a second boy on a different day that was drowning. There are two people in this world that have their lives because of her. She was always thinking of others.

Family, friends, and others whose lives she touched are invited to a funeral mass at St. Anne's Catholic Church June 8, 2019, at 11 a.m. (1131 NE 10 St, Grants Pass). A celebration of life will be held after.
