

Baker County Fair 2015

Photos by Gina Perkins

According to Jayne Kellar, Office Manager for OSU Extension, 151 4-H and FFA animals sold at Saturday's auction. Preliminary results (before any sale add-ons) in terms of total sales are $260,267.

Skye Smith and her chicken "Gray" won this big ribbon for her Overall Best of Show in the Open Class.

Reserve GC Lamb was Gussie Cook. Buyers were LaGrande New Holland and Baker Vision Clinic

Reserve GC Rabbits belonged to Darby La Haug. LaDonn Mcelligott of North Powder was the buyer.

Reserve GC Steer exhibitor Bryson Thomas with buyer Kate Rohner of Rohner Farms.

Terry Kerby, plant manager of Ash Grove was the buyer of the Reserve GC Market Goat, owned by Hailey Zikmund.

Joshua Polkowske was the exhibitor of the Reserve GC Hog which was purchased by Old West Federal Credit Union represented by Darryl Leggett.

At left, Janice Gyllenberg and Hope Buckner are long time 4-H supporters and past leaders. They enjoyed visiting at the 4-H Horse Show.

Burnt River FFA won the Club Herd Contest.

At right, Zack Morrison, a junior in 4-H riding English. Among other awards Zack was the Champion junior in English Pleasure, Champion junior Showman, and won Grand Champion over all ages in Western Pleasure. He also competed with his chicken and pig.

Above, Weston Downing entered this huge cabbage and earned Reserve Champion honors.

Below, this beautiful quilt was Reserve Overall Champion in the Open Class. It was made by Jo Owen.

Gloria Diers

is celebrating her 90th birthday this Sunday, August 16!

Please join us anytime between 1-3 p.m. on Sunday at Meadowbrook in the large front room. There will be treats and music. No gifts, but birthday cards are welcome!

TAMI'S
PINE VALLEY FUNERAL HOME
& CREMATION SERVICES
125 North Main St. / P.O. Box 543, Halfway, OR 97834 • 1-541-742-6435
www.tamispinevalleyfuneralhome.com