

Pine & Eagle Valley News

Tami Waldron • tami@pinetel.com

Here we are, into our second week of Aug. The weather has been hot, and nights are definitely cooling right down. They say we are going to get some rain. That remains to be seen. Monday we had dark clouds, a huge wind and then it passed. At Blake and Kellie Dennis's home a huge tree came down, thankfully not causing any damage.

Baker Fair

The Eagle Valley 4-H had a wonderful weekend at fair in Baker City this last week. There were smiles all around, ribbons being won, friends being made. Now they look forward to Labor Day weekend when the Baker County Fair and Panhandle Rodeo take place in Halfway. See you there!

Cycle Oregon

On Monday evening, I met up with Jonathan Maus, founder and editor of Bike Portland. He has a website BikePortland.org and blogs about bicycling all across the country. Jonathan was biking the route the Cycle Oregon will be doing here in Sept.

Pine Fest

The event is scheduled for Sept. 11-12 to be held at the Pine Valley

Fair Grounds in Halfway. The list of entertainers include Brook Faulk; a group called Jelly Bread which is a soul/funk fun band; the Steve Fulton Band out of Boise; The Blackberry Bushes with fiddle and banjo; Bread & Circus a newcomer on the Boise Band Scene. Finger pickin' fun; James Dean Kindle & the Eastern Oregon Playboys. It is going to be a fabulous weekend, so come on out, kick up your heels or relax and enjoy. Tickets $10 each, children under 12 are free.

Ending

And so my friends, it has been a busy couple of weeks. The eye is slowly improving but the medicine to cure me has just about made me beyond miserable. Hopefully with my sight slowly coming back, we are on the mend. Lets end with this thought-Don't put the key to happiness in someone else's pocket.

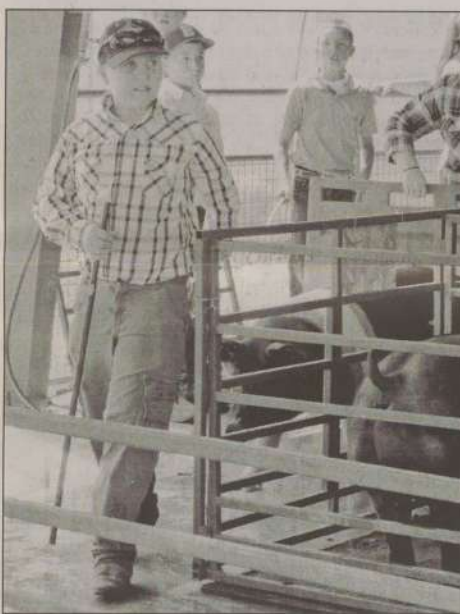

Have a great week everyone. Call me with your news.....

Historic Medicine Show to be Presented at Trail Center

Living history interpreter Mike Follin brings a re-created traveling frontier medicine show to the National Historic Oregon Trail Interpretive Center Aug. 14-17. Presentations of "Dr. Balthasar" are scheduled daily at 10:30 a.m., noon and 2 p.m. in the Leo Adler Theater located inside the Center.

Follin is with the Ohio Historical Society in Cincinnati, and created the character of a 19th century frontier patent medicine salesman to help modern Americans understand frontier history and early day health care.

The Dr. Balthasar character uses the rapid fire patter and entertaining techniques that attracted early American country folk to attend a sales talk and purchase mostly useless tonics. Follin opens and closes his forty minute programs with modern viewpoints and facts about this early industry and frontier life, but when he assumes his character, audiences find themselves transported back in time, and often become part of the good doctor's sales spiel.
