

Harry J. Galloway

Oct. 1916 - Nov. 2015

On Nov. 1, 2015, Harry J. Galloway left his earthly home to be with the Lord. He was 99 years old and lived in Baker City with his wife of 46 years, Phyllis Chee Galloway, whom he met in Melbourne, Australia.

Most people knew Harry as Slim. He was the son of Silas and Viola Haring Galloway, and was born on Oct. 16, 1916 in Kingston, Penn. Harry was predeceased by his sisters, Emma Mader Whitney and Edith Vandermark, and his brothers, Charles and Emory Galloway.

He is survived by his brother, Edgar Galloway, and Neva Pond, who live in Reading, Penn., and by his two children, Charles Dale Galloway (wife Marjorie) and Evelyn Shelton (husband Donald), and step sons, Edward Patton (wife Karen) and Elwood Patton (wife Carolyn). They were a pipeline family and the sons all worked, for at least part of their lives, as heavy equipment operators all around the United States, including Alaska and Hawaii. Harry also worked in Saudi Arabia, Australia, and Guam.

He was blessed with grandchildren: Jon, David, and Edward Patton, and Sierra Galloway; great grandchildren, Alexandra, Rebekah, Nathanael, and Hannah Patton, and great-great grandson, Bryson Hargrove.

Harry was lead scout and sniper on the China/Burma/India campaign during WWII with Merrill's Marauders. He walked most of the Burma Road during that stint in the U.S. Army. He received a Good Conduct medal, AS/PAC THR SER MED w/3 Bronze Stars and Victory Medal. Also Harry piloted for many years in the Civil Air Patrol.

In May of this year, Harry and his son Dale traveled to Washington D.C. with the Oregon Honors Flight, where WWII veterans were honored for their service to our country. Harry especially loved when school children came up to him to shake his hand and thank him for his service as they toured the monuments around the city.

He enjoyed playing music, hunting and fishing, and had many hobbies, including running his hunting dogs, knapping stone arrowheads, and gardening. Even late into his 90s, Harry walked the blocks around his neighborhood to stay fit and tended his backyard chickens.

Harry was a fierce soldier, committed husband, loving father, wild explorer of the woodlands, and tireless fisherman and marksman. Last year at age 98, he shot his final elk, and was hoping to get a tag for a buffalo this year. Harry enjoyed hunting and fishing with his friends, Todd Calloway, Al McMillen, and Byron Henry.

His boyhood friends from Pennsylvania remember tales of Harry providing deer meat for families during the Great Depression and of having the pleasure of working with him on various pipelines. He claimed that Pennsylvania and Oregon were the prettiest states in the Union, but stayed in Oregon for the wider range of hunting and fishing.

His twinkling eyes, great storytelling, and his love will be greatly missed. "Remember," he would say, "to never let anyone get you down." He lived life with a smile on his face.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be offered in memory of Harry J. Galloway to: St. Jude Children's Research Hospital through Gray's West & Company Pioneer Chapel, 1500 Dewey Ave., Baker City, OR 97814.

Katheleen Friend

June 1920 - Oct. 2015

Katheleen Friend, 95, passed away in Boise, Idaho on Oct. 15, 2015. A visitation was held in Baker City and a graveside service was held October 23, 2015 at Eternal Hills Cemetery in Klamath Falls.

Katheleen was born June 16, 1920 in Branson, Mo., to Truman T. Smith and Daisy Pearl (Moore) Smith.

She attended Kirbyville High School in Kirbyville, Mo., and went to college at the School of The Ozarks, graduating in 1941. She married Wilburn (Wilbur) Lee Friend in May of 1945 in Springfield, Mo.

Katheleen was a teacher, secretary, telephone operator, home maker and mother. She retired from Pacific Northwest Bell as a telephone operator in the late 1970's. She enjoyed knitting, crocheting, camping, reading and photography.

A large part of who Katheleen was is defined by her deep seated faith in God. Until she lost her sight, she was an avid reader of the Bible and attended church regularly. She was quick witted with a quiet but always evident sense of humor. Observant and intelligent, she often appeared introverted and reserved but once she got to know a person and accepted them as a friend, the reserve disappeared and she was lively and joking with all she considered close to her. She was not hesitant in expressing her opinion of someone or something, especially politicians. She enjoyed observing weather and discussing weather phenomenon. She often said if she had life to do over again, she would be a meteorologist.

She retained her quick wit, lively sense of humor and sharp memory throughout her life. She was a memorable person. She will be missed.

Wilbur and Katheleen moved from Missouri to Klamath Falls in the summer of 1946 and moved from Klamath Falls to Baker City in 1984.

She is survived by her son Rex Friend of Petersburg, AK, and numerous nieces and nephews located in Oregon and the Mid West.

Katheleen was preceded in death by her husband Wilbur in 1996, her mother Daisy in 1983 and her father Truman in 1954.

Contributions may be made, in memory of Katheleen, to Relay for Life or Heart N Home Hospice through Gray's West & Company Pioneer Chapel, 1500 Dewey Ave. Baker City, OR. 97814.

Dennis Mitchell Hanby

Feb. 1949 - Nov. 2015

Dennis Mitchell Hanby passed away Nov. 1, 2015 in Baker City at his home. He was 66 years old. He was born Feb. 21, 1949 in Baker City to Walter Harden and Merle Mitchell Hanby. Dennis grew up in Baker City, going to North Baker Elementary, Baker Jr. High, and Baker High School. He graduated in 1968. He attended one year of college at Albany, Ore.

During the summer of 1969, he went to work for the Forest Service on the Road Dept. He had worked there two summers before. In the fall of 1970 he moved to Roseburg where he worked at the plywood mill. He met his wife, Roma there. Dennis married Roma Ann Simonyi on Jan. 6, 1973 in Layton, Utah. They moved to Ogden, Utah shortly after their marriage. Dennis worked at a plumbing supply outfit while living in Ogden. They had one daughter, Crystal. Dennis divorced in 1983 and shortly thereafter moved back to Baker City. He moved back into the house he grew up in and lived there until the time of his death.

Later in life, Dennis worked as a locksmith until retiring for health reasons. Dennis' outdoor passion was hunting and he had several hunting partners through the years. Dennis also loved horses and owned several over the years. As part of this love, he became a member of the Baker County Sheriff's Posse in October of 1989. He loved riding in the parades which he did every year. After his last horse died he borrowed a horse so he could continue to ride in the parades. He learned a lot with the posse. He participated in Search and Rescue and also helped with their Youth Trail Rides each summer. He took his daughter Crystal on some of the trail rides. He also helped her participate in 4-H when she was young making sure she had a horse to ride. He loved going on the Youth Trail rides and was hoping to take his granddaughter Mataya out with him this past summer. Dennis received Posseman of the year in 1999.

After his horse died he got a four wheeler to get around on the trails with and to assist in his hunting expeditions. He spent many happy hours riding the trails with friends. He also used his four wheeler to plow snow off of the neighbor's sidewalks in the winter. He was always willing to lend a hand and help someone out. He was very much appreciated and a friend to many, he was loved by many who knew him. He will be greatly missed.

Dennis was preceded in death by his parents, and his daughter Crystal. He is survived by a sister Cheryl Webb, brother Gary Hanby, granddaughter Mataya, grandson Haygen, 11 nieces and nephews and approximately 31 grandnieces and nephews. Dennis was a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.

A memorial service was held Saturday, Nov. 7, at 11 a.m. in the Baker City LDS Church 2625 Hughes Lane. He was buried in Cove Cemetery at 2 p.m. next to his grandparents.

Anyone wishing to donate to a Memorial College Education for Dennis' grandchildren Mataya and Haygen, may contact Cheryl Webb at 541-523-4538.

Janice Marie Keller Feist

April 1938 - Nov. 2015

Our dear mother, the heart of our family, Janice Marie Keller Feist, went home to be with our Lord on Nov. 6, 2015 at the age of 77. The family held a private celebration in memory of her.

Janice was born April 15, 1938 in Gladstone, ND to Joseph and Elizabeth Keller. She was the middle of ten children. She married the love of her life, Virgil Feist. They were blessed with 51 1/2 years together.

She is survived by her children, ten grandchildren, nine great grandchildren and her extended family, the Malcoms.

Janice loved being outside, tending to her flowers, her garden and sitting in the sun. She loved to bake (her chocolate chip zucchini bread was the best!) and make her famous popcorn. She loved to play cards, bingo and painting ceramics. Her sense of humor will be missed by all who knew her.

She lived a simple and blessed life.

Our family is heart broken for our loss but relieved she is at peace. We will miss her dearly. Thank you to the staff and residents at Settlers Park for the love and friendship you provided to our mom. She appreciated it more that you will know. A special thanks to Dr. Smithson, Jeanne and Seth from Heart N Home, your compassion was a true blessing.

Arrangements are being made through Gray's West & Company Pioneer Chapel, 1500 Dewey Ave, Baker City, OR 97814.

Wanda Elizabeth Kirkwood

Jan. 1940 - Nov. 2015

Wanda Elizabeth Kirkwood, 75, of Baker City passed away on Nov. 8, 2015, with her family by her side.

Born Jan. 29, 1940 in Tulsa, Okla., she was the daughter of late Anna Belle Ryan and Moses Jefferson Townsend. She married Robert Kirkwood in April 24, 1954. They were married for 61 years.

She retired after 18 years as a receptionist for Senior and People with Disabilities.

She is survived by her husband, Robert Kirkwood, son Bob Kirkwood and wife Sue of LaChine, Mich; son Rex Kirkwood and wife Karen of Baker City; son Roger Kirkwood of Baker City; daughter Vena Callow and husband Patrick of Baker City.

One of her greatest joys is having the family together. Her grandchildren were all so special to her, Tara Garrison of Ontario, Ore., Christopher Kirkwood of NC, Tyler and Brittney Kirkwood of Mich; Travis Kirkwood, Melissa Nipper of Baker City, Taylor Anderson of Emmet, Idaho, Adam Mastin of Nampa, Idaho, Justin Cole of Meridian, Idaho, Roger Kirkwood, Jr. and Rylan Kirkwood of Baker City; and her great and great great grandchildren as well.

She is preceded in death by her Mother, Anna Bell Ryan, her daddy, Moses Jefferson Townsend, her brothers Edgar and Leon Townsend; and her sisters Patricia Dalton and Louise Gregory.

A private graveside service for family members only will be at Mt. Hope Cemetery on Friday, Nov. 13, 2015.

Friends and family are welcome to attend her celebration of her life afterwards at noon, at the Eagles located on 2935 H Street. The family suggests donations be made to National Multiple Sclerosis Society and will be handled through Coles Tribute Center, 1950 Place St. Baker City, OR 97814.

Death / Service Notices

Dorothy R. Fiala, 83, of Baker City passed away Nov. 7, 2015 at Saint Alphonsus Medical Center in Boise, Idaho. Services are pending through Gray's West & Co. Pioneer Chapel.

John Charles Hall, 66, of La Grande passed away Oct. 30, 2015 at Kadlec Regional Medical center in Richland, Wash. His memorial service will be Saturday, Nov. 21, 2015 at 2 p.m. at Gray's West & Company Pioneer Chapel, 1500 Dewey Ave., Baker City with Dale Bingham of Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints officiating.

Nancy Basche, 66, of Baker City, died at her home surrounded by her family on Monday, Nov. 9, 2015. Arrangements are under the direction of Tami's Pine Valley Funeral Home and Cremation Services. On line condolences may be shared at www.tamispinevalleyfuneralhome.com

The family of Lynn Pryse

Invites You to a
Party in His Memory
November 27, 2015
at 3 p.m.
Quail Ridge Golf Course
Baker City

Obituaries
online at www.therc.com online.com

ELTRYM HISTORIC THEATER

Your Tushy will feel Cushy in our New Seats!

1809 1st St., Baker City • 523-2522
www.eltrym.com

Advance tickets now available at our website
Prices: Adults $9 • Tightwad Tues. $6
Matinee/Youth/Senior $7

November 13-19

007: SPECTRE PG-13
A cryptic message from Bond's past sends him on a trail to uncover a sinister organization.
FRI-SUN (4:00) 7:30
MON-THURS 7:00

THE PEANUTS MOVIE G
Snoopy embarks upon his greatest mission, while Charlie Brown begins his own epic quest back home.
FRI-SUN (4:20) 7:20
MON-THURS 7:20

BRIDGE OF SPIES PG-13
During the Cold War, an attorney is recruited to facilitate the exchange of a Russian spy for an American POW.
FRI-SUN (4:10) 7:40
MON-WED 7:10

HUNGER GAMES: MOCKINGJAY PT 2 PG-13
Opens Thursday, November 19 at 7:10. Tickets on sale now!
THURSDAY 7:10

Celebrating 75 Years
() = Bargain Matinee

Record-Courier

Blue Mountains to North Canyon

(USPS 457-720)
COMBINED WITH
NORTH POWDER NEWS
HAINES, OREGON 97833
BAKER COUNTY NEWSPAPER

Gina Perkins, Editor-Publisher
news@therconline.com

Heather Honeywell,
Double H Productions
Graphic Design/Production
news@therconline.com

Published every Thursday at Haines, Ore.
Office located at 914 Front Street. Telephone
(541) 856-3615. Periodicals Postage Paid at Baker City, OR 97814.

Subscriptions and Postmaster: Send
Address Changes to P.O. Box 70, Baker City,
Oregon 97814-0070.

Subscription Rates: $39 per year in area,
$44 per year out of area.

Contact us for advertising rates.

Disclaimer: The Record-Courier does not endorse or make any claims on the advertising that appears in this publication. We recommend that you research advertising claims thoroughly before acting on them.
The Record-Courier also reserves the right to reject advertising we deem to be misleading or inappropriate, however we do not verify advertising claims.

Thursday, November 12, 2015

Happier hunting

J. TABOR JEWELERS

1913 Main St. • Baker City • 541-524-1999

© JATW 2015