

Corina Zarkowski

1981 - 2016

The world lost a beautiful, talented, fierce and tender hearted young woman on May 23, 2016. Corina Zarkowski was an artist, humanitarian, volunteer, social worker, animal lover and rescuer, licensed hair stylist, published make-up artist, seamstress, model, musician, writer, advocate, friend, daughter, sister, cousin and auntie.

She loved science, anthropology, gardening, flowers, collecting rocks, knitting, reading, exploring new places, drawing, painting, sewing and nature. Most of all she loved helping others and spent her life doing so, and memorials are being held for her all across the United States.

Her parents Michael Zarkowski, Frances (Monteleone) Worden, her sister Nadina Zarkowski, her brother Jonathan Knox Zarkowski, her nephew Meza Nichol, her niece Ria Nichol, her step-brothers Daniel and Derek Worden, her step-sister Anna Bauersmith, her cousins Jesse and Ember Anderson, Colleen and Julian James Warner, Amber, Maranda and Graci Aman, Wesley, Briana and Sabastian Aldrich, her aunts Gail Monteleone, Monica Zarkowski and Sharon Tomlinson, her uncles Vincent and Joseph Zarkowski and all her friends and all the people she has helped over her lifetime loved her and miss her so much.

Memorial Services will be held at Gray's West and Company Pioneer Chapel, 1500 Dewey Ave. Baker City, OR 97814 on June 17, 2016 at 11 a.m. with family and friends officiating the service.

Peggy Jo Cunningham

Nov. 1957 - June 2016

Peggy Jo Cunningham, 58 years old, died June 4, 2016 at her home in Baker City. A Celebration of Peggy Jo's Life will be held on Saturday, June 18, 2016 ~5 p.m. at the Quail Ridge Golf Course in Baker City.

Peggy was born on November 20, 1957 to John and Grace Proffitt, in Kalispell, Montana. She grew up in Baker City and was raised in the Pine Creek area as one of the "Proffitt Dozen" or the "Lucky Dozen" as she and her siblings called themselves. From the time she was a young child, she spent her summers at church camp where she developed a great love for the Lord.

Peggy attended High School at Baker High and enjoyed cheer-leading. She had two daughters: Misty Logan and Kelly Nork, with her first husband Cary Roberts. She later had a son, Jake Lager and a daughter, Grace Lager with her second husband Tom Lager. Peggy eventually married Ralph "Dan" Cunningham and gained two Step-Daughters: Shyanne and Sierra Cunningham. Soon after marrying, Peggy and Dan moved to Carson, Washington where they spent some of their happiest years together.

Peggy loved to travel and often followed Dan on his jobs away; The couple spent much of their spare time vacationing and visiting friends along the way. Peggy was full of infectious energy and a spunk that was not matched by many. She was known for her feisty personality, honest heart, and exceptional Indian leg wrestling skills. Her beautiful smile carries through on the faces of her children and grandchildren she loved so deeply. She was very proud of her family and cherished the time she had with them.

Survivors include her husband Dan, daughters: Misty Roberts, Kelly Nork and Grace Lager; son Jake Lager, step daughters: Shyanne, Kelly and Sierra Cunningham; Grandchildren: Paige Logan, Pennie Logan, Farrell Linscott, Harley Sipp, Dawson Linscott, Noble Culley and Boston Lager; Grandchildren: Calvin, Dave, Loren, and Cecil Proffitt, sisters: Debbie McCray, Glenda Proffitt, Ramona Cain, Cindy Brown and Tammy Burns as well as numerous nieces and nephews.

Peggy was preceded in death by her parents John and Grace Proffitt, brother Larry Proffitt and sister Judy Johnson.

For those who would like to make a memorial donation in memory of Peggy we do so to help defray service expense to Tami's Pine Valley Funeral Home & Cremation Services, P.O. Box 543, Halfway OR 97834. Online condolences can be shared at www.tamispinevalleyfuneralhome.com.

Charles (Doc) Edward Dockweiler

Nov. 1930 - June 2016

Charles (Doc) Edward Dockweiler passed away June 10, 2016 at the Martinsburg VA Medical Center in Martinsburg, WV under hospice care. He was born November 29, 1930 to Edward A. Dockweiler and Lucille Moon Dockweiler in Baker City. They later divorced and he was raised by his mother Lucille. He lived in Oregon and Virginia most of his life. He served in the US Army from 1949 to 1953 during the Korean War Era. He married the love of his life, Anna Morris, on June 21, 1952 at the First Baptist Church in Alexandria, Virginia and they were married 60 plus years until she passed in 2012. They were team owner/operators for Atlas Van Lines/Paxton Division for many years then Charles later became self-employed and owned his own auto repair shop both Virginia and Oregon. He loved working on friends and families cars, salvaging vehicles recreating them to into amazing towing flatbed trailers.

Charles loved music originally taught to him by his father. He could play any instrument that had strings and sing like no other. He loved jamming with his sister Millie and her husband Monroe, and his father and sister Gaye. Charles and Anna had no children of their own however they raised Anna's niece, Victoria Haney, as their own daughter. She was the love of their lives. After Ann's passing he moved from Oregon to Kearneysville, WV and his daughter took care of him until his death. He leaves behind daughter Victoria (Snoozes) Shirley, Son David Charles Mullins, seven grandchildren, three great grandchildren, two sisters, Gaye (Bill) Murray of Montana, Mary Ellen Jackson, and one brother Ted (Polly) Dockweiler of Oregon, and many nieces and nephews and two favorite nieces, Pamela Delaney and Clara Sue Kostman.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Anna, his parents, step mother, Eva, and three sisters. Per his wishes there will be no funeral service.

In lieu of flowers, send donations to St. Jude Children's Hospital at 800-231-3441.

Sherry Sue Sheridan

March 1945 - June 2016

Sherry Sue Sheridan, 71, of Halfway, passed away June 6, 2016, at her home. At Sherry Sue's request there will be no service.

Sherry Sue was born to parents Richard "Dick" and Susan Schroeder on March 3, 1945, in Portland, Ore. She attended Gilbert Grade School. She graduated from David Douglas High School in 1963. Sherry Sue lived in Vancouver Washington and Sandy, Ore., but found her true home to be Halfway in 1980.

Sherry Sue was employed by Fred Meyers, and was a truck driver for Stauffer Chemicals gold mine. She worked for Highland Minerals in Halfway. While she working for Highland Minerals, the company was looking to hire an operator at the gold mine. She had heard Steve Sheridan was in town and could do the job, so they hired him. Sherry Sue and Steve fell in love and were married December 11, 1990. "He was a wonderful man to grow old with," stated Sherry Sue.

Sherry Sue enjoyed fishing, the snowfall in the mountains and the trees. She loved spending time with her kids. She loved all the seasons. She loved her friends and she loved living in Halfway. She loved the color red, her home, the yard flowers, sewing, going on rides to see wild life, mosaics, and her dog "Judy."

Her most memorable moments in her life were when her children were born; living in Halfway; and talking with her brother while they drank whiskey and red wine.

She was preceded in death by her husband Steve, daughter Susan Marlow, father Dick Schroeder, brother Tom Schroeder, sister Melody Dolan, and her dearest friend and best company, Judy.

Sherry Sue is survived by her sons, Michael Marlow and Richard Scheck; step-daughter Kandace Sheridan; grandchildren Amanda, Michael and Alicia, Brycen, Adam and Noah; great grandchildren Emma Jean, Nicholas, and Kyla.

She asked that an excerpt from her favorite poem be included:

*When I am an old woman I shall wear purple
With a red hat which doesn't go, and doesn't suit me.
And I shall spend my money on brandy and summer gloves.
And satin sandals, and say we've no money for butter.
I shall sit down on the pavement when I'm tired and gobble up samples in shops and press alarm bells.
And run my stick along the public railings.
And make up for the sobriety of my youth.
I shall go out in my slippers in the rain.
And I shall pick flowers in other people's gardens and learn to spit.
But maybe I ought to practice a little now?
So people who know me are not too shocked and surprised.
When suddenly I am old, and start to wear purple.*

Sherry Sue has left us all with fond, interesting, fun, laughable, routine, different, and kindred memories of which we shall fondly remember.

For those who wish to make a memorial donation in memory of Sherry Sue, you may do so to the charity of your choice, through Tami's Pine Valley Funeral Home & Cremation Services PO Box 543, Halfway, OR 97834.

Announcing the 2nd Annual Pie Baking Contest

Sponsored by: The Rock Creek-Muddy Creek Mutual Improvement Club

Your host: The Record Courier Newspaper

Calling on all Baker County Pie Bakers! It is time to show off your baking skills. Be it Fruit, Cream or Custard, we want to see what you got. Each pie will be judged by a hand-selected group of judges - experts in their field.

All you have to do is bring your pie to the Record Courier Office in Haines, between the hours of 4:00 - 6:00 p.m., on July 3rd. Pies will be judged on their presentation, the level of skill required to complete the pie, and of course, for their yumminess.

Judging will take place on the morning of the 4th of July. Winners will be announced during the parade.

Individual pie slices will be available for sale during and after the parade in front of the RC office. All proceeds will go to community projects of the Mutual Improvement Club.

Get out your granddaddy's pie crust recipe, take advantage of that summer fruit or whip up something creamy and dreamy - you decide. But whatever you do - don't miss the fun.

Judging the 2016 contest are:

Dave Johnson - expert in food service, owner of the Haines Steak House

Ruth Boyd - professional culinary judge, former home economics teacher

Tim Kerns - expert in eating all kinds of foods with great enthusiasm

If you have any questions or would like to pre-register, please call Doty Miles at (541) 377-5795.
