

Tracy Bighill: "We are a shirttail relative to Sharps. I got interested because my grandfather was a collector, and because of my interest in Vietnam."

Buz Holt: "I've had a lot of favorite guns, and most will shoot straighter than this, but if I had to pick one to make a living with, it would still be the old 30-30."

Kenny Wolf: "I always wanted one of these old Sharps buffalo rifles, even when I was a kid, so when I got the chance I took it. Collectors drove the price through the roof, and I ain't a collector, but I'm glad I got it."

"We've had collectors in the family. I like them just for the fun and novelty. I'd rather you didn't use my name because guns seem to draw thieves."
