

MORE FLOWERS

Dale Flowers is an Astoria High School teacher, busy with such subjects as global studies, sociology, psychology and economics now that summer is over. It is hoped this latest batch of his cartoons will not be the last until the end of the school year. He is also a keen satirist as a writer in addition to his art, which he displayed in the August issue of the Times Eagle. -MPMc

