Publisher visits VML day school

The Valley Migrant League day school in Salem recently had an important visitor. It was Dr. Robert E. Allen, vice president of the Follett Publishing Company.

He met with Sarah Goodwin and Bob Wynia of the V.M.L. Adult Education Department and they talked about the special kinds of school books that we use in our programs. Dr. Allen's company supplies many of the materials we use in our schools.

Dr. Allen also visited some of the classes at Salem. He said he thought that what we are doing for seasonal farm workers was very important.

"You are giving many people a chance to improve their own lives and the lives of their families. That is the idea behind the War on Poverty. I am glad to see it working," he said.

La escuela de día del Valley Migrant League en Salem recientemente tuvo un visitante importante. Fue el Doctor Robert E. Allen, vicepresidente del "Follett Publishing Company."

El conoció a Sarah Goodwin y Bob Wynia del Departamento de Educación para Adultos del V.M.L. y discutieron los libros de clases especiales que usamos en nuestros programas. La compañía de Dr. Allen impronta muchas de los materiales que usamos en nuestras escuelas.

El Dr. Allen también visitó a unas de las clases de Salem. Dijo que pensaba que lo que estamos haciendo para los trabajadores es muy importante.

"Uds. lo hace posible para muchas personas a mejorar la vida de ellos y de sus familias. Esto es el fin de la Guerra en Contra de la Pobreza. Me alegro verlo en acción," dijo.

Stayton announces Well child clinic

How long has it been since you took your children to see the doctor? Many times we let these things go too long, and a regular visit to the doctor is very important.

If you live in the Stayton area you can take your children to get a doctors examination free on Tuesday, the 15th of March. The Marion County Health Department will have a doctor and a public health nurse in the city hall on that day, between 9:30 and noon.

The doctor will give a complete examination of your child, and tell you if he is in good health. Also, at that time, immunizations for children of all ages will be given.

If you want to bring your youngsters for this free well child conference and immunization clinic be sure and call Mrs. Walter Frey at 769-2732 in Stayton.

BASKETBALL . . .

Woodburn moved out ahead at once, and everyone was asking themselves if it could be done. They already had played one game that day, and now were up against a fresh team. But even the hard fighting, determined Independence team could not stop them. When the final buzzer went off it was 67 to 54 in favor of Woodburn, and the V.M.L. had their 1966 champions.

We asked coaches Mike Devine and Al Klinge who they wanted to name as their star player.

"Everyone contributed equally to the game. That is a real sign of a well organized and well disciplined ball club. We can't pick out any one player . . . everyone was a star.
