Items from this newspaper chosen for reprint

Occasionally an item from this newspaper is reprinted in another publication.

In the issue of April 1, 1966, the Opportunity News printed several photos which one of the editors, Rick Simon, took in California of the Delano Grape Strike and its leader Cesar Chavez. The magazine St. Joseph, American's Catholic Family Magazine, has borrowed the photos for reprint in a coming issue.

In the March 25 issue of this newspaper, the story of Mrs. Enid Breeding, entitled, "Migrants do the Impossible," appeared. This story has been reprinted, with the permission of Mrs. Breeding and the Opportunity News, by the Laubach Literacy newspaper, News For You, issue of May 4.

An article about the Russias at Woodburn, entitled "Characters From Tolstoy—Making a Start in Oregon," appeared in the April 8 issue of The National Observer. It was written by one of its staff members, Mark R. Arnold, who came to this area to gather information. Mrs. Priscilla Carrasco of the Opportunity News staff, and Vasily Bodunov, a member of the Valley Migrant League board, assisted him in gathering material.

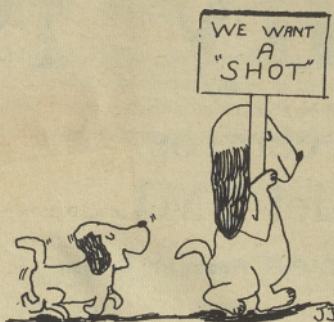

Usan cosas de este periodico en otra publicacion

Cada vez en cuando un artículo de este periódico se lo usan en otra publicación.

En el Opportunity News del 1 de abril, 1966, hubo varios fotos de Rick Simon, uno de los directores de este publicación con el lider de la Huelga de Trabajadores de Uva en California, Cesar Chavez. La revista St. Joseph, American's Catholic Family Magazine, ha pedido las fotos para usar en una publicación para el futuro.

En el periódico del 25 de marzo, la cuenta de la Sra. Enid Breeding, titulado, "Migrants do the Impossible," apareció. Con el permiso de Sra. Breeding el "News for You" lo volvió a publicar.

Un artículo sobre los Rusos de Woodburn, "Carácteres de Tolstoy — empezando en Oregon" lo publicaron en The National Observer. Fue escrito por Mark R. Arnold, quien vino a este área para recoger la información. Priscilla Carrasco, del Opportunity News, y Vasily Bodunov, miembro del Comité de Directores del Valley Migrant League, ayudó en recoger la información.

GET YOUR DOG VACINATED

Dogs need vaccinations every two years. The Marion County Health department will provide clinics next week and will vaccinate dogs for $2.00 each.

The clinic schedule is May 10-12 in Salem, Stayton, and Silverton; May 10-13 in Woodburn. For further details, call the Marion County Health Department.

SANDY REPORTS CAC MEETING

Last week the VML Opportunity Center in Sandy was the scene of a meeting of the Community Action Council. According to Ken Killary, supervisor at Sandy, several groups are now learning to feel "at home" at the center, including the teenage and the adult clubs.

REUNION DE CAC EN SANDY

La semana pasada el Centro de Oportunidad de Sandy fue el centro de reunión del Consejo de Acción Comunal. Según Ken Killary, Supervisor de Sandy, varios grupos están ahora aprendiendo a sentirse "en casa" en el centro, incluso los clubes de adultos y jóvenes.

WHAT'S NEW AT INDEPENDENCE?

Migrants are coming in daily to the camps in the Independence area, according to a report from the opportunity center by Mrs. Eva Garcia. They are arriving from Texas, Arizona, California and other states.

The strawberry crop is coming on rapidly, now in the blossom stage.

The growers are now harvesting asparagus. The work of cutting, grading, and packing goes on daily, through Saturdays and Sundays.

Meanwhile, there's active social life provided by the Spanish American Organization of Independence, with a dance planned for Thursday of this week at the City Hall, complete with tamales.

TIE VOTE IN HILLSBORO ON ABUNDANT FOODS ISSUE

Last Sunday at Hillsboro, 7 growers attended the meeting of the Mexican Club of Washington County, to present their reasons for wanting "abundant foods" from the government. Emilio Hernandez presided at the meeting.

On Tuesday of this week the county commissioners of Washington County met to consider the request for abundant foods. The four commissioners voted on the proposal, and the vote was 2 to 2.

According to Ruby Ely, supervisor of the VML center in Hillsboro, Washington County is the only large county in Oregon that does not have an abundant foods program. There are three smaller counties that do not have it, but they are applying for it.

NOTICIAS DE INDEPENDENCIA

Los trabajadores llegan a los campos del área de Independence, según un informe del centro de oportunidad por la Sra. Eva García. Están llegando de Texas, Arizona, California, y otros estados.

La cosecha de mora está bien, ahora está en el paso de crecimiento.

Los agricultores ahora recogiendo espárragos. Están trabajando, seleccionando, y empacando diariamente, hasta los sábados y domingos.

Mientras tanto, hay actividades sociales por medio del la Organización Española Americana de Independence, con un baile planeado para el jueves de esta semana. En la alcaldía, se venderán tamales.

EMPATE EN VOTO DE COMIDA ABUNDANTES EN HILLSBORO

El domingo pasado en Hillsboro, 7 agricultores asistieron a una reunión del Club Mexicano del Condado de Washington para presentar sus razones por querer comida abundante del gobierno. Emilio Hernandez presidió la reunión.

El martes de esta semana los comisionados del condado de Washington se reunieron para considerar el pedido para comida abundante. Los cuatro oficiales votaron y los resultados quedaron 2 a 2.

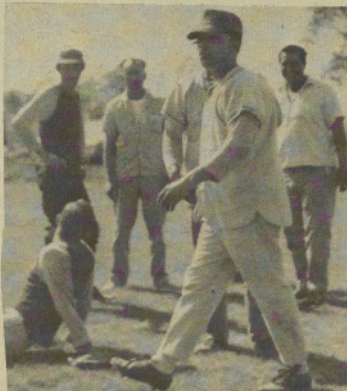

Según Ruby Ely, supervisor del centro VML en Hillsboro, el condado de Washington es el solo condado grande que no tiene un programa de comida abundante. Tres condados más pequeños no lo tienen, pero ellos están solicitando.

Woodburn bounces back--beats Independence

A strong Woodburn baseball team, after losing to Independence last Sunday, came back to defeat the same team the following Sabbath by the score of 8 to 5.

Woodburn's play was dominated by strong pitching and hitting at the opportune moment.

It appears now that the Woodburn team will be the team to beat in the newly organized baseball league being formed by various opportunity centers of the VML.

AND mighty "Casey" stepped up to bat! Then he struck out.

EL fuerte "Casey" llegó a batear! Entonces lo dieron 3 "strikes!"
