

Fiesta Queen to be named Sunday

by Julie Behar

Which of these pretty Mexican girls will become this year's Fiesta Queen? They are: Lydia Padilla, 16, Canby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Juan Hernandez; Maggie Saldana, 15, Woodburn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Saldana; and Elvira Carbajal, 17, Woodburn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jose Carbajal.

The queen will be selected and announced on August 21 in the library park in Woodburn. She will then reign and be formally crowned on the day of the 3rd annual Mexican Fiesta to be held at Settlemier Park on Saturday, August 27.

How will the queen be selected? The three candidates are selling tickets for 25c and each ticket counts as a vote. The girl with the most votes will win the title of queen. The ticket money collected will be used for funds for next year's fiesta and for Christmas festivities for the Woodburn community.

By noon on Saturday, a big parade with floats will begin a full day of activity. The event will be held in downtown Woodburn.

Elvira Carbajal

After the parade everyone is invited to Settlemier Park where a variety of booths will be open. Mexican food, pottery and souve-

Lydia Padilla

Cual de estas tres lindas muchachas mexicanas será la Reina de la Fiesta de este año? Ellas son: Lydia Padilla, 16, Canby, hija de Sr. y de la Sra. Juan Hernandez; Maggie Saldana, 15, Woodburn, hija del Sr. y de la Sra. Leon Saldana, y Elvira Carbajal, 17, Woodburn, hija del Sr. y de la Sra. Jose Carbajal.

La reina será elegida y el anuncio se hará el 21 de agosto en la Biblioteca del Parque en Woodburn. Ella entonces reinará y será formalmente coronada en el día de la tercera Fiesta Mexicana anual que tendrá lugar en el Parque Settlemier el sábado, agosto 27.

Como será elegida la reina? Las tres candidatas están vendiendo boletos por 25c y cada boleto cuenta nirs will be sold.

An amateur show and singing and dancing will highlight Saturday evening. Later, a public dance, featuring "Los Relampagos" from Sunnyside, Washington, will be held at the tennis court.

According to Mrs. Andrea Chavez, the president of the Comité Pro Mexicano, "Last year's fiesta was very successful, but I'm sure that this year will be even better."

Maggie Saldana

como un voto. La muchacha con el mayor número de votos ganará el título de reina.

El dinero que se colecte por la venta de boletos será utilizado para la fiesta del año próximo y para las festividades de Navidad de la comunidad de Woodburn.

A medio día del sábado, un gran desfile con carros adornados florales iniciará un día lleno de actividades. Las festividades se llevan a cabo en el centro de Woodburn.

Después del desfile, todos serán invitados al Parque Settlemier donde una variedad de puestos serán abiertas.

Comida mexicana, vajilla y objetos de recuerdos serán puestos a la venta.

Una revista de novicios, cantos y bailes culminarán los acontecimientos del sábado por la tarde. Más tarde, se llevará a cabo un baile público, presentando, "Los Relampagos" de Sunnyside, Washington, que tendrá lugar en la cancha de tenis.

Según la Sra. Chávez, presidente de Comité Pro Mexicano, "La fiesta del año pasado fué un gran éxito, pero estoy segura que la de este año será mejor aún."

Twins born in West Stayton

TERRY, Terry and Jerry, are shown above with their proud parents, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Pearson.

By Julie Behar

"It can't be twins," Mrs. Douglas Pearson said to the doctor at the Marion County Health Clinic, in disbelief. A few days later, Mrs. Pearson delivered Terry and Jerry, two 5 lb. twin boys.

Mrs. Pearson was already 9 months pregnant before she received her first pre-natal care. She did not know that a free health clinic was offered to the public in West Stayton on Tuesday from 5 to 9 p.m. Mrs. Pearson was grateful to receive free medical care before she had her babies.

The Pearsons are from Bakersfield, California. They came here for the bean season and live at the Lafsky Camp in the West Stayton area. They also have two other children, a daughter, Mary Anne, and a son, James LeRoy.

LOS GEMELOS, Terry and Jerry, están en los brazos de sus padres orgullosos, los señores Pearson.

"No pueden ser gemelos," le dijo la Sra. Douglas Pearson al doctor en la Clínica de Salud del Condado de Marion, en descreencia. Unos días más tarde, la Sra. Pearson deba a luz a Terry y Jerry, dos varones gemelos de 5 libras.

La Sra. Pearson llevaba un embarazo de 9 meses antes de que recibiera los primeros cuidados prenatales. Ella no sabía que se ofrece al público un servicio clínico de salud al público en West Stayton los martes desde la 5 hasta la 9 de la noche. La Sra. Pearson estaba muy agradecida de recibir un médico gratuito antes de tener a sus bebés.

Los Pearson son de Bakersfield, California. Ellos vinieron aquí para la cosecha del frijol y para la de Lafsky Camp en el area de West Stayton. Ellos también tienen otros dos hijos, una hija, Mary Anne, y un hijo, James LeRoy.

New managers chosen for circulation

Newspaper circulation managers for each area were appointed last week to be in charge of newspaper distribution for their areas. A meeting was held Friday at the Opportunity News newspaper office in Woodburn to discuss and plan how the newspaper should be distributed. It was decided that they should be taken from door to door in each migrant labor camp. This would allow each migrant family to receive the newspaper every week. Any settled families that would like to receive the Opportunity News regularly by mail should contact the persons listed below.

Circulation Manager

- Juanita or Bob Watts
- Bob Barker
- Alan Fujii
- Phyllis Richotte
- Tom Livingston
- Mrs. Rigney
- Karen Berg
- Fortino Bustomante

Opportunity Center

- Dayton
- Hillsboro
- Independence
- Jefferson
- Salem
- Sandy
- West Stayton
- Woodburn