PROPER WAY TO CONNECT GAS WATER HEATER TO HOUSE BOILER

TO PROPERLY CONNECT
a Gas Water Heater, four
(4) separate connections are required, viz: Hot and cold water, the gas and the vent.

The cold water supply must be taken from the bottom of the boiler, through either 1/2 or 3/4 inch galvanized pipe, and connected to the bottom of the gas heater, the drain cock being placed at the lowest point.

The hot water is taken from the top of boiler, with full 3/4 inch galvanized pipe all the way, care being used to avoid trapping the hot water supply.

At least 1/2 inch gas supply is necessary to give best results.

The heater must be vented through at least a 3 inch vent pipe into chimney.

A good draft is necessary, but NO DAMPER should be used.

A plan is on foot to organize a national union of blacksmith helpers. The helpers were formerly attached to the journeymen's union.

The workers of Rutland, Vt., have formed the Independent Labor party and claim they will elect their candidate for mayor.

THE STATE PRINTER.

Mr. J. R. Whitney, who is seeking re-nomination for the office of state printer at the hands of the Republican voters of the State of Oregon, is following a precedent which has prevailed for many years, viz: that when one has performed his duties acceptably and creditably he is invariably given a second term.

Mr. Whitney has certainly performed the duties of his office in a careful, conscientious, and business-like manner, employing only union printers, and paying more than the scale, besides voluntarily conceding eight hours a day's work, a matter that is of vital importance to organized labor.

Mr. Whitney is a life-long Republican and edited the Albany Herald for nearly 20 years, a paper known throughout the state for its unwavering allegiance to the Republican party and the candidates nominated at their conventions. He is a native Oregonian, a graduate of the University of Oregon, and a practical union printer.

Mr. Whitney is conducting a clean, straightforward campaign, and one that will not require any apologies after its conclusion. His friends are confident that he will be re-nominated without much opposition.

SLOCUM FOR CORONER.

Dr. Sam C. Slocum, candidate for the Republican nomination for Coroner is a native son of Oregon and is well qualified in every way to fill the responsible office he seeks. Dr. Slocum graduated from the Portland High School in 1895 after which he entered Cooper Medical College in San Francisco from which he was graduated in 1900. He then returned to Portland and served as House Surgeon in St. Vincent's Hospital and the North Pacific Sanatorium. Dr. Slocum has visited hospitals and attended clinics in South America, London, and the Eastern cities of this country all through his own personal effort as he was forced to educate himself.

Dr. Slocum served as assistant city physician during the smallpox epidemic here, and, as police surgeon, won many friends through the courtesy so uniformly extended to all with whom he came in contact.

Dr. Slocum is a staunch friend of the people and in placing his name before the public has done so at the request of his many friends who wish the Coroner's office to be filled by a physician, who is better able to judge the cause of death under uncertain circumstances.

Dr. Slocum says: "If nominated and elected County Coroner I will establish the office of coroner separate from any undertaking establishment whatsoever, which will give me opportunity to adhere strictly to the wishes of the bereaved friends and relatives in the matter of funeral ceremonies. I will treat everybody with uniform courtesy and will play no favorites.

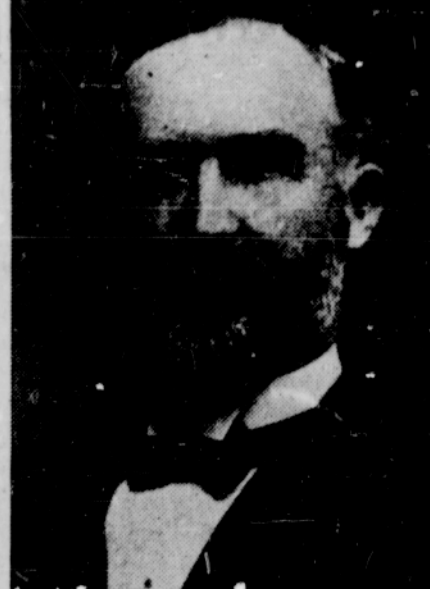

"As to my platform of 'economy, justice and honesty,' I wish to say that I will practice strict economy for the taxpayers of Multnomah County insofar as it does not interfere with the arms of justice.

"I will be just to all parties having business with the office or County before its courts and will make it my special duty to see that the laboring man is well represented on the coroner's jury where one of his fellow laborers has met with sudden death at the hands of the instruments of a corporation or otherwise.

"I will conduct an honest administration and be courteous, kind and obliging to all having business with the office of County Coroner.

A co-operative drug store may be established in Butte, Mont. Differences existing between the store proprietors and the Clerks' Protective Union, is said to be responsible for the move. If the plans of those interested in the project are carried out, the co-operative drug store will open for business within the next few weeks.

DR. JAMES WITHYCOMBE.

Republican Candidate for Governor

Dr. Withycombe is well known throughout Oregon. He has been a resident of this State for nearly 35 years, and during this time has always stood for a higher citizenship and loyally supported every progressive movement for the upbuilding of the commonwealth. He has been a staunch Republican all these years and a strong advocate of higher political ideals.

His sympathies are with the industrial class, believing in the dignity of labor and he is a champion of the right of honest toil.

Dr. Withycombe is a clean, conservative but broad-gauged man of unquestionable integrity and is in every way qualified for the high position to which he aspires. If elected he will give an administration to which every citizen will point with pride.

CANDIDATE FOR REPUBLICAN NOMINATION AS STATE TREASURER.

Judge Thos. F. Ryan of Oregon City.

Born in Rhode Island 46 years ago, Judge Ryan came to Oregon in his 21st year and entered into the employ of the Brownsville Woolen Mills Co. at its factory in Brownsville. The following year he went to Oregon City where he has since resided. He has been elected as Mayor, City Recorder, and School Director and Clerk of Oregon City, and for the last seven years has been the County Judge of Clackamas County, in which position he has proven himself to be an exceptional business man, paying off an indebtedness of over $200,000, and at the same time constructing each year many miles of good, improved modern roads, and decreasing the tax levy each year.

In an interview Judge Ryan says: "Being neither president, cashier or stock holder in any bank or agent nor employee of any money loaning institution I pledge myself to use and guard the funds of the State in a strict conformity to the laws of the State and for the interests of all of the people and not discriminate in favor of any institution or person. As a man of the people, independent of any clique, faction or corporation, I request the support of all Republicans in securing this nomination, and if elected I promise to perform every duty required of the State Treasurer in an efficient and economical manner."

This is a good time to put in a good word for Oregon-made goods.

Candidate for Republican Nomination for

COUNTY JUDGE

Primary Election April 20, 1906

C. U. GANTENBEIN

Republican Candidate for

CIRCUIT JUDGE

Multnomah County
Department No. 4

The Department Now Occupied by Judge M. C. George

Colonel Gantenbein is 41 years of age, and graduated at the head of the Class of 1891 of the Law Department of the University of Oregon. For the past thirteen years he has practiced law as a member of the firm of Gantenbein & Veazie. For three years he has been Dean of the Law School of the University of Oregon, teaching nearly all branches of the law, this work being most excellent preparation for the position of Judge which he seeks.

In the words of General Otis, Governor General of the Philippines, to the Secretary of War, he "Performed difficult and distinguished services in the Philippines as Major of the Oregon Volunteer Regiment, both in the field and as an important member of military courts, boards, and commissions."

At the time of the organization of the supreme court of the Philippine Islands he was offered a position as a member of said court, but declined for personal reasons.

If elected, he pledges himself to observe the letter and spirit of his oath of office without fear, favor or prejudice.
