Declarations of the American Federation of Labor.

A few of its declarations upon which it appeals to all working people to organize, unite, federate and cement the bonds of fraternity:

The abolition of all forms of involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime.

Free schools, free text-books and compulsory education.

Unrelenting protest against the issuance and abuse of injunction process in labor disputes.

A workday of not more than eight hours in the twenty-four hour day.

A strict recognition of not over eight hours per day on all federal, state or municipal work and at not less than the prevailing per diem wage rate of the class of employment in the vicinity where the work is performed.

Release from employment one day in seven.

The abolition of the contract system on public work.

The municipal ownership of public utilities.

The abolition of the sweat shop system.

Sanitary inspection of factory, workshop, mine and home.

Liability of employers, for injury to body or loss of life.

The nationalization of telegraph and telephone.

The passage of anti-child labor laws in states where they do not exist and rigid defense of them where they have been enacted into law.

Women suffrage co-equal with man suffrage.

Suitable and plentiful play grounds for children in all cities.

The initiative and referendum and the imperative mandate and right of recall.

Continued agitation for the public bath system in all cities.

Qualifications in permits to build of all cities and towns that there shall be bathroom attachments in all houses or compartments used for habitation.

We favor a system of finance whereby money shall be issued exclusiveiy by the government with such regulations and restrictions as will protect it from manipulation by the banking interests for their own private gain.

We favor a system of United States government postal savings banks.

The above is a partial statement of the demands which organized labor, in the interest of the workers—aye, of all the people of our country—makes upon modern society.

Higher wages, shorter workday, better labor conditions, better homes, better and safer workshops, factories, mills and mines. In a word, a better, higher and noble life.

Conscious of the justice, wisdom, and nobility of our cause, the American Federation of Labor appeals to all men and women of labor to join with us in the great movement for its achievement.

More than two million wage earners who have reaped the advantages of organization and federation appeal to their brothers and sisters of toil to unite with them and participate in the glorious movement with its attendant benefits.

There are affiliated to the American Federation of Labor 128 International Trade Unions, with their 27,000 local unions; 39 state federations; 632 city central bodies and 668 local trade and federal labor unions having no internationals.

MOVEMENT IN MISSOURI GROWS.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—In a communication just received from John T. Smith, secretary-treasurer of the Missouri State Federation of Labor, it is stated that the movement throughout the state is gaining strength. He has been taking a trip over the state, holding meetings in the various cities where there are central bodies, and reports that although the weather has been extremely warm, a splendid attendance has greeted him at every place visited. Among other work performed he organized the Milk Handlers' Union at Columbia, Mo.

THEY EAT TOO MUCH.

An expert in Massachusetts says the reason the race dies out is that women and girls eat too much. Yes; we have noticed it. The department store girl on $4 a week, and sometimes $5 and even $6, has every indication of eating too much. So does the factory girl at $2.50 a week, and the factory child (two millions of them) on 50 cents to $2.50 a week. The Massachusetts Institution of Technology is turning out some queer ones.

The economic pressure from the outside is affecting the mail carriers on the inside of the civil service laws in New York, Brooklyn and other Eastern cities. Hundreds of them are being put on the waiting list and the remainder driven as men are driven in sweat shops and "open shops" and hell holes. The public suffers, and the poorer residence districts suffer most in the skimp and save and "killman" policy of the administration.

Some years ago the Steel Trust started a great co-operative movement among its employees that was to bring capital and labor together. It issued a lot of watered stock and half-forced it on its employes. Then it passed dividends and started rumors and bought the stock back for less than it paid for it by 50 per cent. After this stunt the Steel Trust slept easy; capital and labor had laid down again—labor inside.
