BOSS OF THE ROAD

UNION MADE OVERALLS WORKING CLOTHES

WE ARE BLIND.

When you ask your grocer for a dollar's worth of sugar you pay 25 cents as a tax to help out the sugar trust and receive 5 cents' worth of sugar. Golly! How would you howl if you had to pay that tax stamp bought of the government and added on your sugar! The party that framed that sort of a stamp tax would wait last long enough to put another stamp on necessities; but there are a thousand such stamps on necessities, only we don't see them.

When ever you read of an employers' association voluntarily raising wages, reducing hours, bettering conditions or arbitrating differences with employees, you are simply dreaming. They are not built that way in Oregon as yet.

The Redmond Hub calls for brick buildings, and says they would greatly increase the value of the land on which placed.

THE HOW OF IT.

September number of Land Values, of London, England, is issued in the midst of the aftermath of the great strike. It pertinently points out in commenting on the strike:

"The strike is the weapon that workers have taken, rightly or wrongly, into their hands to increase wages and better their condition. If instead of there being two men for every job, there were two jobs for every man, the worker could as an individual demand reasonable terms and would negotiate with any employer as a free man instead of as a virtual serf. The essential feature of strike is that they are a quarrel over the division of wealth produced in a limited field of employment, where real wages can never rise, however much money wages may change. The competition of two men for one job is as fierce after a strike as before it, and the only way to end that competition is to extend the field of employment by forcing idle acres into use, making vacant lots available, opening up all the mineral resources of the country and allowing all who can and do use land to make it as productive as possible without being penalized by unjust taxation."

MONEY CAME EASILY.

The progressive Australian commonwealth of Western Australia needed revenues and levied a small tax on land values, with a large initial exemption. It brought in a million four hundred thousand pounds, with scarcely any expense, on the self-assessment plan. Every man valued his own land in a blank and sent in the tax accordingly. His assessment was full and just because the penalty was that the state could buy at the assessment figure named. It amounted to nearly one-third more than expected.

CAN BE DONE.

A piece of land in Portland 50 by 100 feet recently leased for a total income in cash and buildings that will revert to the owner in twenty years, at nearly $30,000 a year. This neat little sum is given just to get the owner out of the way. He does nothing. Labor and capital do the rest. The farmer helps pay that $30,000 as much as the city worker. Every cent comes out of the workers in the end. Why not take more of it for public expenses and leave the idler who gets out of the way of honest capital and labor a little less for his idleness?

SAME GANG.

During the campaign against the San Francisco grafters, Fremont Older was kidnaped by the same gang now fighting organized labor in Los Angeles. He was a wealthy and influential newspaper man. The gang wanted him out of the way. Because of his standing and wealth he was rescued. Shoaf, a poor newspaper man, has disappeared in Los Angeles. He knew too much. Same methods, same gang, same interests want him suppressed.

A mill and timber trust for the Northwest is being organized on closer lines than ever before. It will have no use for organized labor, either. No combination of capital and special privilege ever wants anything organized it cannot control.
