

POLITICAL NEWS NOTES.

"Give 'em 'Fitz'" for sheriff.

"Grit your teeth" and place your name on those scab-printed registration lists.

Candidate endorsed by Workingmen's Political Club:

Sheriff—Wm. H. Fitzgerald, member Cigarmakers' Union, working at his trade.

County clerk—Fred Prasp, member Musicians' Union.

Congressman—A. W. Lafferty.

Circuit judge—Waldemar Seton.

County commissioner—T. J. Kreuder.

District attorney—Seneca Fouts, retired member of Cigarmakers' Union.

Justice of the peace—Joe Jones.

State representatives—R. O. Rector, member Carpenters' Union; A. W. Lawrence, member Typographical Union; M. J. Murnane, member Steam Engineers' No. 87.

Delegates to national conventions—C. M. Rynerson (Republican) and A. D. Cridge (Democratic), members of Typographical Union.

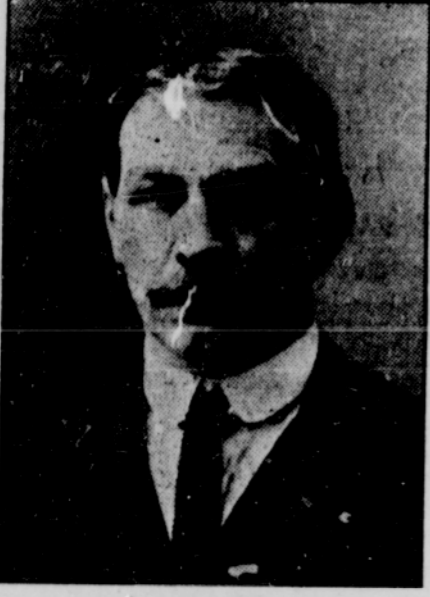

The gathering of the friends of Wm. H. Fitzgerald, member of the local Cigarmakers' Union and candidate for sheriff, last Thursday evening at Arion Hall was one of the most successful meetings of its character held in years.

H. G. Parsons presided and introduced R. O. Rector, A. W. Lawrence and M. J. Murnane, candidates for the legislature; T. J. Kreuder, for county commissioner; Fred Prasp, for county clerk; Seneca Fouts, for district attorney, and Waldemar Seton, for circuit judge.

Each candidate made a short talk, and after Mr. Seton concluded a humorous address that was greatly appreciated, he introduced Mr. Fitzgerald. The latter discussed various duties of the office and declared that he would accept nothing more than the salary allowed by law.

An executive campaign committee was announced as follows:

George Orton, M. W. Peterson, F. C. Holland, R. O. Rector, M. E. Nolan, J. W. Oberender, George Jackson, Samuel Sax, D. W. Paul, W. A. Randall, C. F. Caulfield, L. F. Otto, Gustave Linde, C. E.

T. J. KREUDER Candidate for County Commissioner.

White, A. C. Turner, J. A. Brady, B. W. Sleeman, T. Baldwin, J. Maher, E. A. Barnes, J. L. Ledwidge, L. A. Helbock, F. Krause, J. O'Connor, C. P. Peterson, J. F. Cassidy, E. J. Hayes, Leon E. Howard, A. G. Rushlight, W. A. Marshall, Peter Hansen, Ben F. Greene, J. M. Tackaberry, George Seely, A. Linden, James Maguire, Will Daly, George Taylor, B. A. Vermeir, E. J. Stack, E. T. Fletcher, H. A. Duke, E. A. Schneider, J. I. Tucker, H. G. Parsons, C. M. Rynerson, W. A. Herman, T. H. Burchard.

The Prasp for County Clerk Club held another good meeting Monday evening. The attendance was just about double that of the former meeting. The next meeting will be held April 1st.

Court House Fourth Floor, TODAY

The News comes out flat-footed for Seneca Fouts for district attorney. The News has put up one of the hottest and most scathing fights against the court house gang that has ever been seen in Portland. It knows what it is talking about when it says that Seneca Fouts will clean out the bunch of crooks that hang out there.

JOE JONES Candidate for Justice of the Peace.

There are three men out for the nomination for the legislature who are not lawyers nor real estate sharps. A. W. Lawrence, printer; R. O. Rector, carpenter; M. J. Murnane, steam engineer. Keep a lookout for their names on the ballot. There will be enough lawyers in the legislature anyhow.

Alfred L. Cridge, well known progressive Democrat, single taxer and union labor advocate, was asked by the Workingmen's Political Club and others to run for delegate to the national Democratic convention. He finds it costs too much to get on the ballot and therefore his friends will write his name on the ballot. His open letter is as follows:

"Having been away from Oregon for several weeks and finding that I would have to go to heavy expense to comply with the red tape of the direct primary law, if progressive Democrats, union labor men and friends want me to go to Baltimore they can write my name on the ballot. Democrats are few and getting fewer in Oregon because the Democrats in the lead here are afraid of democracy, and it costs more to get on the Democratic primary ballot than it does on the Republican. I cannot afford to pay $75 for the privilege, and I will not ask for nor accept assistance from friends. At the primary the citizen can vote for but one candidate to represent him at the national convention of his party. This enables a minority of considerably less than one-tenth of the voters to send one man by concentrating on him. If wanted I will serve, and those desiring me to do so can put an 'X' mark before my name and write it in. This is my platform, which I would rather stay at home on than go to Baltimore on any other: "Oregon system to national affairs. All tariffs are frauds. Tax special privileges and franchises for national support. Demands of A. F. of L. on national issues. Government ownership and operation of railroads and public utilities. A greater navy, but one engaged in commerce and not in parade of war. Abolition of U. S. Senate. Election of national lawmakers by preference vote. Equal suffrage. Abolition of veto power by supreme court. Will abide by instruction of the rank and file as to presidential candidate."

Portland Labor Press: At a regular meeting of Willamette Lodge No. 63 Brother Andy Weinberger was unanimously endorsed as candidate for re-election as constable. Brother Weinberger has carried a card in the Machinists' Union for the past 23 years and is still in good standing, and we feel he should have the support of the working people. He has been tried on several occasions while being constable and has always assisted us when in his power to do so. A vote for this man will be a credit to the working people of this city.

I. T. U. NOMINATIONS.

Washington—Secretary-Treasurer Hays has sent out a list of nominees and nominators for the various positions to be filled at the next referendum election of the International Typographical Union. The following contains a list of the candidates for the principal offices and the number of nominations they have received: For president, James M. Lynch, 301; Fred Barker, 143. Vice-president, George A. Tracy, 245; James M. Duncan, 169. Secretary-treasurer, J. W. Hays, 331; Clifford M. Cobb, 92; James B. Ross, 22. Delegates to the American Federation of Labor, Frank Morrison, 371; Max S. Hayes, 246; T. W. McCullough, 223; Hugh Stevenson, 221; Charles Hertenstein, 179; Frank J. Bonnington, 90; Daniel Delahoyde, 81; A. B. Rodriguez, 71; Franklin W. Hynes, 20; John H. Ferguson, 13.

AMALGAMATION TO TAKE PLACE.

Washington—The general secretary of the Amalgamated Wood Workers' International Union, John G. Meiler, has remitted to the office of the American Federation of Labor the final per capita tax for that organization. In transmitting the tax Mr. Meiler informs Secretary Morrison that the terms of amalgamation agreed to between the Amalgamated Wood Workers and the Brotherhood of Carpenters have been overwhelmingly accepted by the Amalgamated Wood Workers, the vote being 1,312 for and 330 against. Thus the amalgamation between these organizations will shortly become an accomplished fact.

Washington—The men charged with violating the federal laws growing out of the McNamara case have been arraigned before the federal court in Indianapolis, Ind., and all have entered a plea of not guilty and the trial of the cases set for October next. An effort is being made to have the cases consolidated.

Birmingham, Ala.—The Federated Shop Trades on the Southern railway and allied lines have concluded to make an effort to establish the eight-hour day upon the expiration of the present agreement on April 1. The sentiment among the shop is practically unanimous in favor of the shorter work day.

Was I Knocking?

Since I ran my last ad three dealers in "ready-to-hop-in-clothes" have called me up and said I was knocking them. I don't want to knock anybody. It doesn't pay. I simply told the truth about men who know good tailoring and their experience in trying to make an "approximate measure" fit their individual needs.

When I measure a man for a suit the measurements are carefully put down in a book and the cloth, after thorough sponging, is cut to these measurements—your exact measurements.

That's why Barkhurst clothes fit and their wearers become my patrons. This expert Union tailoring and my low prices, $22.00 to $50.00, made possible by my large volume of business and thorough organization of Union men and women, is why I am doing the largest high-grade tailoring business in the city.
