ELECTRICAL WORKERS QUIT STONE-WEBSTER

Two Years of Parleying Between Big Constructing Concern and Employees Results in Strike in Four Northwest Cities; Right to Organize Demanded.

Word comes from Everett, Wash., that a strike of electrical workers employed by the Stone & Webster concern was called Wednesday. The strike involves workers at Everett, Tacoma, Seattle and Bellingham. The right of the men to organize is the chief issue between the strikers and the company. A uniform wage scale in all these cities is another demand.

Negotiations between the union men and the company officials have been going on for two years, the only concession to the workers in that period being the right to organize one-half of the linemen. The other electrical workers, such as station operators, station wiremen, lamp trimmers and cable splicers, were permitted no organization whatever.

With 50 union linemen out on strike the Stone-Webster concern in Seattle, Tacoma, Bellingham and Everett is without a single union laborer of any kind in any department of the gigantic enterprises. The Stone-Webster interests in the Northwest employ about 300 men.

While Seattle linemen have been paid a wage scale of $4.40, those in Everett and Bellingham were paid as low as $3.50, and other electrical workers were compelled to work for as low as $2.5 a month.

The following amendments to the price list were adopted and are effective at once:

- Saloons. Section 7—Class A: Where more than one bartender on each shift is regularly employed. (a) Per week of six days, any five (5) consecutive hours, $20.00; leader, $25.00; piano alone, $25.00. (b) Five hours, divided into two sessions, see Section 7, paragraph 10 h. Class B: Where one bartender only on each shift is regularly employed. (a) Week of six days, any five consecutive hours, $2.50 per man per day; leader, $2.50 additional per week.
- Cafes. Section 24—Any two consecutive hours or less before 8 P. M., week of six days, $9.00; leader, $12.00.

News of Electrical Workers

Local No. 125.

The amendments to the by-laws came up for discussion at the last meeting and intense interest was shown in the proposed changes. The attendance was good and an amendment needed considerable merit before it was passed.

The organizing campaign is getting results. Ten new members were initiated last meeting and several more applications were passed on. By the end of the month there should not be an outside electrical worker who will not have had opportunity offered him of joining with us to maintain and better our conditions.

The brothers should take note of the broad interpretation rendered by our international president covering our jurisdiction over the employes working for light, power, traction and telephone companies, which is stated in full in the last number of the Worker.
