LABOR COUNCIL PICNIC

baseball news for us during the past season says: Fifteen innings of first-class baseball was the treat given those who took in the ball game at Crystal Lake Park Sunday last, when the Bricklayers' team "walloped" the Labor Press team. Perhaps we should not have said "walloped"—on account of the score being so close. When you are fortunate enough to see a game wind up in the fifteenth inning with a score of 4 to 3, you usually remark that you have seen "some game." That is what happened, and we have unanimously voted it the best game of the season—amateur or otherwise. After tossing a "two-bit" piece in the air, the Labor Press won the hand, each team having plenty of noise behind them. Someone has advised the sporting department that the umpire was in wrong when he called a balk on Pitcher Anderson, allowing a runner to score from third, on account of the bases not all being populated. We will not make any fuss over this affair, and plead ignorance of such technical points. Most of us went to see a good ball game and we are all satisfied. We will not quibble over small things like this. The winning team is entitled to the glory. Catcher Gardner, Labor Press, put considerable life into the game; he handled his end like a veteran. The crowd was immense, and the grandstand, bleachers, and sidelines were packed. This made necessary the use of a high table in order to properly score the game. We have oldest continuous membership card in any bona fide labor union was won by John Kaltenbach whose card was dated Feb. 2, 1887. He is a charter member of Sheetmetal workers union No. 16, still actively engaged at his trade, takes a keen interest in the affairs of his union and the organized labor movement in this city. The picnic was a success financially as well as every other way and a handsome sum was realized which will be used for the purpose of raising the debt now owed by the Labor Temple Association. In this connection many of those who were instrumental in bringing the picnic to a successful conclusion are now planning to begin an agitation for the erection of a real labor temple to be owned by organized labor. The committees have demonstrated their ability and if they go after the labor temple proposition there will be something doing.

Why Did Mayor Albee and the King of England, Governor Foss and the German Emperor

And Over Fifteen Million People Visit the Old

British Convict Ship "SUCCESS"

BECAUSE—This wonderful Vessel Has Made History Through Three Centuries. She Marked the Beginning and the End of England's Monstrous Penal System. BECAUSE—She Has Held Lurid Horrors and Dreadful Iniquities Beside Which Even the Terrible Stories of the Black Hole of Calcutta and the Spanish Inquisition Pale Into Insignificance. BECAUSE—She Is the Oldest Ship in the World and the Only Convict Ship Left Afloat of That Dreadful Fleet of Ocean Hells Which Sailed the Seven Seas in 1790 A. D. BECAUSE—She Is Unchanged After All These Years, Nothing Being Omitted but Her Human Freight and Their Sufferings From Cruelties and Barbarities Practiced Upon Them. BECAUSE—Aboard Her Are Now Shown, in Their Original State, All the Airless Dungeons and Condemned Cells, the Whipping Posts, the Manacles, the Branding Irons, the Punishment Balls, the Lead-Tipped Cat-o'-Nine Tails, the Coffin Bath and Other Fiendish Inventions of Man's Brutality to His Fellow-Man. BECAUSE—From Keel to Topmast She Cries Aloud the Greatest Lesson the World Has Ever Known in the History of Human Progress.

The Convict Ship Will Never Again Be Seen In Portland

DURING HER SHORT STAY HERE THE PRICE OF ADMISSION WILL BE 25c

Now open to the public daily, Sunday included, 9. A. M. to 10 P. M.

Foot of Yamhill Street

Note—The Convict Ship positively closes her season in Portland at 10 P. M., Tuesday, Aug. 24. Are you really going to miss seeing her?

choice. They took the field; the announcer with a huge megaphone, introduced "Doc" Hardin, who acted as umpire. He got away with his duties in fine shape. The game was a pitchers' battle from start to finish. Webb, of the Bricklayers, possibly had a small edge on Anderson, of the Labor Press. This we give him on account of more strike-outs. Anderson allowed one less hit than his opponent. Two and one-half innings rolled by without either team getting into the hit column. Shane, Labor Press, made the first hit of the game in the third. Shortly after, Arthur, Bricklayers, slammed out a three-base hit; he won a fielders' mit by so doing. The pitching was not the only entertaining feature of the game. Both teams fielded in fine shape and had not the ground been so much like a "potato field" the one or two errors probably would not have occurred. The outfield work for the Labor Press team was good. Each gardener pulled down at least one hard chance. Fischer, in center, was the particular bright star; he also "was there" with the stick, getting three hits, one a home run. It is with regret we announce that this was his last game at least for this season. There were plenty of rooters on a complete record of the game—thanks to Mr. Willing, who acted as official score-keeper—for those wishing to consult same. (Manager Walter McCredie would do well to look over some of these stars.) The teams lined up (and batted) as follows: Bricklayers—Dorner, lf.; Arthur, 2b.; Anderson, ss.; Link, 1b.; Boland, 3b.; Webb, p.; Huskey, rf.; Hawley, cf.; Blaney, c. Labor Press—Maul, 2b.; Hansen, lf.; Robertson, ss.; Fischer, cf.; Gardner, c.; Anderson, p.; Neher, 1b.; Brady, 3b.; Shane, rf. If some of you Bricklayers happen to see your name spelled wrong—blame Rynerson. If the umpire hadn't called a balk, the game might have lasted as long as the war. If those who missed the game will remember they can see these same teams play at Multnomah field, September 6. We will give more dope on this later. If McCredie does not take a look at Pitchers Webb and Anderson—some one will beat him to it. If—and we almost forgot. Did you notice the way Hansen stole those bases? Following is a list of the winners of the various sporting events: 100-yard dash for union men, first
