

WITH THE CAMERA MAN

Photo copyright International News Service.

SCENE OF SEVERAL BATTLES.

This farmhouse and surrounding country has been the center of several bloody battles, first in possession of Reports from Europe have indicated that the Turks are anticipating an attack upon this famous waterway, which the British are rapidly fortifying.

Photo copyright International News Service.

SUEZ CANAL AT ISMAILIA.

Photo copyright International News Service.

Photo copyright International News Service.

LEFT: REMARKABLE PROFESSIONAL ICE SKATING.
Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Naess, popularizing ice skating, now the fad in New York.

RIGHT: MASKED WRESTLING MARVEL.
Sensation among wrestlers now competing for the championship.

Photo copyright International News Service.

LEFT: GENERAL DUBAIL RIGHT ARM OF GENERAL JOFFRE.

With General Joffre's Army, is known as a fighting man and strategist.

RIGHT: GENERAL SIR W. R. ROBERTSON.
Now Chief of the Imperial Staff of the British Army.

Photo copyright International News Service.

KING GEORGE WITH NEW BRITISH COMMANDER.

Sir Douglas Haig, successor of Sir John French in command of the British Forces in France, walking with King of England.

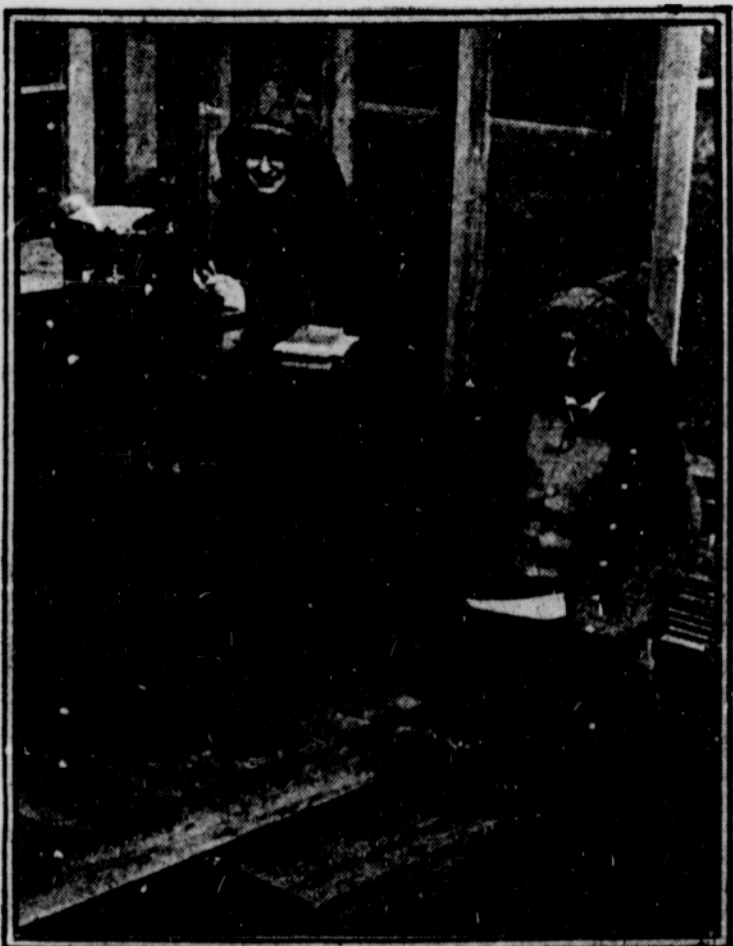

Photo copyright International News Service.

OPEN-AIR OFFICE.

Roger Babson, the commercial expert and economist, gains health and wealth by doing his work in an open-air office in the Wellesly Hills, Massachusetts. Note the "fingers" used by the typist.

Photo copyright International News Service.

ENTRENCHING IN SALONIKA.

Photo shows British forces entrenching in the hills about Salonika.

Photo copyright International News Service.

ON TRIAL FOR KILLING HUSBAND

Photo shows Mrs. Mohr and her two children. In this remarkable murder case Mrs. Mohr is charged with hiring three Negroes to kill her husband, a well known and wealthy physician, on account of his attention to other women.