

CHILDREN'S GARDEN

The recent warm weather, along with a lot of tender loving care, and good watering habits have helped the vegetables in the garden. Local youngsters recently received instruction on harvesting and preparing some of the vegetables for distribution. Jossalyn Burg, Darby Burg, and Kellie Pertl each picked, cleaned, and bagged three types of lettuce along with parsley, onions, and edible flowers. Once finished with the packaging they walked around town distributing the salad mix to local residents. The garden is part of the P.A.S.S.A.G.E.S. project.
