

POEM FROM THE VALEDICTORIANS
SPEECH GIVEN BY TERRIL EARL AND DANNY KRENWINKEL

We have a very unique and close senior class.
Most of us have been together in school for more than six years. It would not really feel right if we did not mention everyone in our class. So to begin we will read you this poem we made that represents all of us and hopefully brings out our classes varied personalities

This little poem,
Was written for fun,
Our crazy comments,
Won't hurt anyone.

Cause Our class is a family,
And families can tease,
So listen very carefully,
We think you'll be pleased.

Zeb loves mythology, McDonald's and bugs.
He also is generous with female hugs.

When we hear the word "Crash", Clint comes to mind.
Long hair and skate boarding make him
defined.

New to the school, Mike's headed for fame.
Double F Double E is his secret code name.

Karrie is spunky and full of horseplay.
Curley will dominate the W.N.B.A.

Don't let Terril fool you with his top grades
and brain.
He's really Don Juan, and drives females insane.

A great famous Lawyer, one day she may be.
But we'll always remember Lilian as a Little Piggy.

With guitar and caramel corn both in hand.
Curphey could hang with any old band.

Little Bobby Richardson, is a Sonics Fan.
Whatever you want, Bobbies the man.

A beauty, a leader, a certain success.
Kristi is bossy, but she still has finesse.

A munchkin with hair almost down to her knees.
Jessica loans money and is eager to please.

Up next is my main Man Kren,
Comes to school prepared, with paper and
someone else's pen.

Artistically talented, Amber sure is,
A chance to go shopping, she'll never miss.

Eccentric hair styles, jewelry, attire.
The Beatles and David set Gina on fire.

Winnie the Pooh, and football too.
James Baldwin loves Angels and singing for you.

Basketball is Josh's favorite game.
And we all know Jordan is his real name.

Our top three sport Jock, David may be.
But fast cars and girlfriends tickle his fancy.

With Fubu and Lugs, Rogier can't help but boast.
He desires a trip though, preferably East Coast.

When a turkey gobbles or a bull elk gives a grunt.
You can bet your bottom dollar, Riley's hot
on the hunt.

So there you have it,
Our little class poem,
We hope it's something you remember,
And can take home.
