

BIG BUTTE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Oh, you better watch out, you better not cry,.... cause St. Nick is coming to town....

Saturday December 8th
5:00-6:30 PM

Smith House Museum
Gifts for the children...
Festive Treats and hot cider for everyone!
Stories in the little house
in the back!
He'll be looking for you!

Next Historical Meeting
January 12th, 2002 at 9:00 AM
Smith House Museum
432 Pine Street

May the fire of this log warm
the cold;

May the hungry be fed; may the weary find rest. And may all enjoy Heaven's peace.

(Traditional prayer said when you light log lit.)

When you bake Christmas cookies ...
Double the batch and share with a neighbor.... that's what makes a memory....

Remember a long time ago.
Think about past generations.
Ask your fathers to remind you,
and your leaders to tell you.
Deuteronomy 32:7

After you visit St. Nick don't forget to go to the Caboose Museum and see what Kaete has for the first 30 visitors.....

History is a good thing.... that's how we learn to make our future a little bit better....

Correction- In the October BULLETIN on the historical page I put a photo of a young woman named "Carol" and said she was Ernest and Blossoms niece. She was actually their daughter...

Thank you Mrs. Conley for letting me know.
