

A Great Big Thank You

From the Butte Falls Fire Department

Because of our wonderfully supportive community, the Butte Falls Volunteer Fire Department Benefit, which was held on August 9 & 10, raised around $2500.00 which will go towards much needed fire safety equipment and wildland fire equipment.

The fire department would like to extend a special 'Thank You' to the following people for their assistance before, during and after the benefit:

- Butte Falls Tavern, drink donations
- Mike Rodgers & Eric Ellis, putting the softball tournament together
- Butte Falls Café, cooking for the bar-b-q, again
- The Rodgers Clan, for cleaning up garbage after the tournaments
- Butte Falls Auxiliary for running the concession booth
- Vennea Stephenson, for keeping the stats for the complete tournament
- Butte Falls Forest Service, for bringing Smokey Bear to the bar-b-q
- The Goes Family, for putting on a great 'Kids Corner'
- Julie & Bear Freeman, for running the dunk tank
- Lady and the Tramps, for providing great music throughout the day
- Diane Gorman, for keeping track of all of the monies

- The Butte Falls Men's Softball team, for helping out throughout the weekend
- Justine & B.J.Parker, Trae & Chris Stephenson, Derek Burns, Sara Mathews and Bonnie Biando, for all of their help during the tournament
- Last but not least Jeanette Seager wins the award for being the Best Volunteer Fire Fighter Spouse of the Year for her help before, during and after the benefit, and washing that mountain of dirty pots and pans! Wow!
