

Bill Irwin Announces Retirement

Culminating a career spanning 45 years with the Rogue River National Forest, Bill Irwin announced his retirement September 30, 2003. Bill worked his entire career on the Butte Falls Ranger District in the planning, timber and silviculture departments, and his efforts are clearly evident as you drive through the surrounding Forest Service land and enjoy the beautiful landscapes. Bill left a remarkable legacy on the Butte Falls Ranger District because of his extensive knowledge of silviculture, and his love for the land.

His career began in 1958 when he was 19 years old, and he made just over $1.00 an hour. Over the years his knowledge, professionalism and integrity while managing the land, and his friendly and cooperative attitude with co-workers earned him the respect of all who worked with him.

To honor Bill, Butte Falls and Prospect District Ranger Joel King presented Bill with the first "Golden Bear Award" at a pot-luck luncheon given in his honor by co-workers and friends.

- 1) Hey, Bill, now you can travel the world....
- 2) Do your own plumbing or build your own house....
- 3) Go golfing.....
- 4) Take dance lessons with Connie.....

Best of luck with your "retirement". You deserve to have some fun.
