2. Newspaper and all that comes in it. No shredded paper.
3. Plastics (codes 1-7) with necks smaller than their base. Water bottles, milk jugs, laundry detergent and shampoo bottles. No butter tubs or cottage cheese containers.
4. Magazines up to ½" thick.
5. Tin cans, aluminum pie plates and aluminum foil. No scrap metal!
6. Telephone books.

Carts will be serviced every week
Except last week of the month.

Recycle Bins (small light blue bins)

1. Glass bottles and jars. Rinsed and lids discarded. No window panes, cookware or tempered glass.
2. Used motor oil up to one (1) gallon plastic containers with screw lids. Do not use plastic milk jugs. Glass and oil will be picked up the last week of the month only.

We will provide weekly service. The carts will be serviced every week except the last pick up day of the month when only glass and oil will be picked up.

Recycle Responsibly- 3 Strikes:

It is extremely important our recycle loads are not contaminated by trash. Should trash become mixed into the recycle our transfer facility may reject our entire load. If this happens we will have no alternative but to take it to the landfill for disposal. With this in mind, should trash be in your cart, we will let you know. Any non-recyclable item will be left. If the problem continues your recycle carts will be "repossessed" and your recycling service will be discontinued. Please understand we do not take Styrofoam, food items, dirty containers, dirty diapers, or kitty litter. Abuse will result in termination of this service.

Identity Theft: What Can I Do?

Past or Potential Victim: Learn How to Protect Yourself.

Important first steps: initializing a fraud alert, closing accounts and filing a complaint. If the stolen information includes your social security number, or if you are unsure exactly what information has been stolen, call any one of the three (3) credit reporting agencies immediately and place an initial fraud alert on your credit report. A fraud alert can help stop someone from opening new accounts in your name by ensuring that you are contacted by phone for verification and confirmation prior to each new account opening. The contact information for the three (3) credit reporting agencies is:
