A little bit of 'friendly advice....by Karen Davis.
On the third day of the Doubleday Fire, fire crews etc. had amazingly contained 75% of the lightening caused fire that threatened our community. My thoughts went back to the 2008 January "WIND" storm that hit this community. I then had a phone call from my daughter, where she heard in the back ground the sounds of the helicopters still dropping water on hot spots of the fire. I asked her if our Grandson Joseph could come up and spend the night. I was on a mission. I wanted to let him actually see, hear & be at our house. Some will think I was wrong, but many times in our lives we find ourselves in situations that we should share with our kids and/or community, but no one does. The outcome is.....by sharing.....we did help save a life. Our children are the future!

Please take the time to remember how you reacted when first the wind storm of January hit our community, and then as your heart raced and we found ourselves face to face with a raging wild fire!
Did you know the location of your kids & family?
Were "important" and/or necessary items quickly put in one location? I want to share this "idea" with everyone. WRITE up a plan and tape it to your front door (or exit) so that everyone knows what, where, when & who. This could save you and your family's lives.
