Has it been your secret desire to run for a city council position?

Why not give in to this desire and become an active member of the Butte Falls City Council. Get to know the inner workings of your city government and help serve your community. The mayor's position and three city council positions are up for election this year in November. In order to qualify for these positions you must be a registered voter in Butte Falls and live inside the city limits six months prior to holding office.

For more information contact City Recorder
Lori Paxton at city hall at 541-865-3262.

You can pick up your petition forms at city hall starting June 23, 2014.
