

Playing in the leaves.

Instead of clearing the site, we are using the naturally occurring objects to enrich children's play.

Bird feeders and a worm farm

Climbing and jumping from rocks

Children learn through dramatic play

We are planning to replace the plastic house and boat we have with a real boat and a house that will fit into our natural setting. This photo demonstrates how the house enriches dramatic play. Children painted the house and are now fixing the roof.