

This cookbook is a collection of favorite recipes of the residents and friends of Butte Falls, Oregon, compiled by students in the Home Economics classes. It reflects the history of our families too featuring some recipes which are cherished because they have been handed down. Most recipes are "from scratch" using traditional methods while other recipes are quick-and-easy beginning with "add-to" convenience foods. There are gourmet and health food recipes too. In these pages, perhaps you will find some recipes new to you. Cook, eat, and enjoy!

Personality sketches of each contributor, the person's philosophy of cooking and hobbies, are given following each recipe.

"I like to cook sometimes, but I am not a creative cook because too much good cooking puts on extra weight."
