Max Sigl

Max Sigl

Max Theodore Sigl died on Dec. 25, 2020, at his home in Hood River, Ore., and was 86 years old at the time of his death. Max was born on Dec. 21, 1934, to parents Charles and Juanita (Bradburn) Sigl. He had one sister, Mary Ann (Sigl) Carroll.

Max and Georgia (Misun) were married on Oct. 16, 1954. They moved to Parkdale, Ore., in 1956 and then, in 1967, they moved to the family farm in Hood River, where Max's parents had begun farming pears. Together, Max and Georgia raised their five children, Max, Cindy, Duane, Chris, and Dennis. Max began working for the Forest Service in 1955, and during his employment, he held many titles, including fire management officer, and assistant regional coordinator for aviation and fire management for the Pacific Northwest Region. He was remembered as a man that had a lot of clout in the Forest Service, and he always treated everyone fairly. Max worked at the Parkdale Work Center and the dispatch office in the Portland Federal Building before resigning in 1981. He spent 26 years with the Forest Service. Max then turned to farming apples and pears full time. Max enjoyed teaching his children and grandchildren the ropes around the farm, and we all "enjoyed" harvest time and all the joys that came around that season like apple cider pressing, which has become an annual tradition.

Max was preceded in death by his wife of 48 years, Georgia Ann (Misun) Sigl; parents Charles and Juanita (Bradburn) Sigl; sister Mary Ann (Sigl) Carroll; brother-in-law John Carroll; and daughter-in-law, Jeanene (Shimp) Sigl. Max is survived by his son Max L. Sigl; daughter Cynthia (Sigl) Dillenbeck and husband Don; son Duane Sigl and wife Barbara; son Christopher Sigl and wife Rebecca; son Dennis Sigl; grandchildren Shannon Smallmon, Amanda Prine, Katelyn Logan, Tharen Sanchez, Aaron Dillenbeck, Nicholas Dillenbeck, Jennifer Williams, Adam Sigl, Crystal Snelson, Benjamin Sigl, Lacy Sigl, Clayton Sigl, Amelia Sigl, Ashley Sigl, and Tiffany Sigl; great-grandchildren Zachary Smallmon, Javier Sanchez, Wyatt Prine, Emilia Logan, Grace Smallmon, Gunnar Prine, John Henry Logan, Julian Sanchez, Jameson Prine, Kaylee Dillenbeck, Hunter Dillenbeck, Colton Dillenbeck, Killian DeHaven, Lily Sigl, Charlie Sigl, Kora Williams, Jace Clark, Grace Clark, Oakley Lamb and Clyde Lamb.

A celebration of life for friends and family will be scheduled in the future. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the National Forest Foundation Eagle Creek Restoration Fund at www.nationalforests.org/donate/eagle-creek-fire.

Arrangements are under the direction of Anderson's Tribute Center (Funerals • Receptions • Cremations), 1401 Belmont Ave., Hood River. Visit www.AndersonsTributeCenter.com to leave a note of condolence for the family.

Jack Osborne Sr.

Jack Osborne Sr.

The Dalles resident Jack Osborne Sr., 92, died Dec. 26, 2020, surrounded by family.

There will be a viewing at Spencer, Libby & Powell Funeral Home Friday, Jan. 8 from 10 a.m. to noon, followed by a graveside service at the IOOF Cherry Heights Cemetery, The Dalles, Ore., at 1 p.m. A celebration of life will be happening when it's safer to gather in large groups and is to be determined.

To know Jack was to love Jack.

Jack was born April 1, 1928, in Ashe County, N.C., to Roby Frank Hardy Osborne and Carrie Inez Phillips Osborne. Jack did not have the easiest childhood, but he always remained positive and made the best out of whatever situation he was in. Growing up, he loved riding his horse Champion, playing football, and reading.

Jack served in the United States Navy as an AN1 working on airplanes. He was stationed in Adak, Alaska, and Corpus Christi, Texas.

After he left the Navy, he met Florence Blevins and they were married in 1952 in Elkton, Md. They spent many years together and both had a passion for putting their families first. On family vacations, Jack always told his kids, "We will have fun if it kills us." They always welcomed family and friends with food, coffee, and laughter.

Jack had a lot of different jobs. He did farm work, factory work, freight driving. He worked at Northwest Aluminum for more than 20 years. Even in retirement, Jack always gave 110 percent at whatever he did. He loved having company over and was famous for his pancake breakfasts; other than that, he loved being outside doing yard work and cleaning up the neighborhood around him.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Florence Ruby Osborne, in 2006. He is survived by his children, Jack Osborne Jr. and Jane Ranslam, both of The Dalles; grandchildren Taunia Canchola, Ginger Ranslam, Travis Osborne, and Dylan Osborne, all of The Dalles, and Jack Osborne III of Salem, Ore. He also has 10 great-grandchildren and countless other family members and friends who will miss him dearly.

Condolences may be sent to Jane Ranslam at 4405 Hwy. 30 W., space 503, The Dalles, OR 97058.

If you would like to make any donations in his name, his two favorite charities were "Boys Town" and "St. Joseph's Indian School."

Mary Chambers

Mary Chambers

Our mother, aunt and friend, Mary Frances Chambers, passed away at age 99 at her daughter's home on Thursday, Dec. 31, 2020. Frances was born on July 25, 1921, in Hood River, Ore., to parents Henry F. Smith and Grace Binns Smith. She was a middle child with eight siblings. When Frances was around 6 months old, she gave her family a big scare. One cold winter day, she stopped breathing and was turning blue. Her father grabbed her and ran outside into the cold air and snow. The shock of the cold air made her start breathing again. Little did anyone know she would get 99 more years! And, those years were pretty great.

She attended school in Hood River and began working at the Spudnut and the Super Cream diners. She and her husband, Harold "Bud" Chambers, married on Feb. 10, 1944. Other than some time they spent in Carlsbad, N.M., while Bud was an airplane mechanic in the Army Airforce, she lived in her beloved Hood River all of her life. After his discharge, they returned to Hood River, where they built their home on Rand Road. Many good times were spent there with family and friends. They welcomed their daughter Debbie in 1955 and Frances began her first career as a wonderful mother. After 48 years of marriage, Bud passed away in 1992.

Frances began a second career when her sister, Bette Walters, who asked her to come help out at her restaurant. Frances became the baker and was very well known for her pies and cakes as well as her friendly smile given freely to everyone. She made many friends while there and certainly contributed to the restaurant's dessert menu success. She also enjoyed embroidery and many of us are the recipients of some of her good work. Reading was also a favorite past time until her eyesight began to diminish. No matter her troubles, she was always positive in her outlook.

Frances was lucky to find companionship a second time with Murray Crosby. They spent many good years together, traveling to Hawaii and many places around the United States visiting friends and family. Murray passed away in 2018.

Frances was an amazing mother and a great support to Debbie and her family. She loved them deeply. She was everyone's favorite aunt to her many nieces and nephews as well as her friends' kids. She was always a great support and wonderful advisor to all who needed it. She was always ready for an adventure or to go for a ride around the valley she loved and knew so well.

Frances is survived by her daughter, Debbie Courtier, and son-in-law Don; grandsons Curtis and Rusty; great-grandchildren Nick, Travis, Cyruss, Bella, Hanna and Ryden; as well as many nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents, siblings, husband Bud and companion Murray. She will be greatly missed by her family and friends.

A memorial service is planned for Monday, Jan. 11 at Hood River Valley Christian Church at 1 p.m. Due to COVID restrictions, the service will be limited to 50 attendees and masks are required. A graveside service will follow at Idlewild Cemetery. Attendance is limited to 100 attendees, with masks and social distancing. The service will also be lived streamed through facebook. Details will be posted on Frances' Anderson's webpage.
