Crews respond to fatal crash in Underwood

Skamania County rescue personnel recovered the body and vehicle of Willard-resident Dave Graham, 67, after a fatal crash last week.

Graham crashed about 550 feet down the bluff above the old Broughton mill in Underwood. The crash is believed to have taken place Sunday, Feb. 21, according to a press release from the sheriff's office.

Sgt. Ryan Taylor, the Skamania County sheriff's deputy investigating the crash, said Graham was reported missing on Sunday around 11 a.m.

On Monday, a driver passing the mill on State Route 14 saw the wrecked vehicle's headlights and called the county around noon, Taylor said.

Taylor said evidence suggested a medical emergency may have led to Graham leaving the road.

Two Skamania County

Sheriff's Office Search and Rescue (SCSOSAR) volunteers belayed down to the vehicle and attached a cable.

A 50-ton crane truck operated by TLC Towing of Ridgefield, Wash., completed the recovery well after dark. Taylor said he specifically requested the company for the incident because of the crane.

Volunteers from Underwood Fire District provided traffic control.

different parties. The male was observed by an officer to be running on train property. The male would not speak with the officer but was warned he would face criminal charges for trespass if he continued to walk on the tracks.
