Robert "David" Carrigan

Robert "David" Wayne Carrigan passed away March 30, 2021. He was born on May 11, 1960, in Port Hueneme, Calif., the youngest of five siblings. He was raised in West Covina, Calif., where he met his first wife, Bernadette Pantoja, mother of his two oldest daughters. After their divorce, David met his second wife, Maria "Carmen" Lopez, and together they moved to Oregon, where they adopted his two youngest daughters. David loved Oregon, living first in Mosier before moving to The Dalles. He was an avid fisherman who taught everyone he could how to fish. He was also quite the joker, known for his epic "dad" jokes and great one liners, like "Women want, me fish fear me."

David was a wonderful man, working for Wasco County School District, districts 9 and 21, for 28 years and was known throughout the community for playing the local Santa Claus. After his divorce from Carmen, he met current girlfriend Sylvia, with whom he spent the last 17 wonderful years. David instantly became a loving grandfather to Sylvia's grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Last year, David lost his eldest daughter, Amy Carrigan, to complications of COVID-19.

David is survived by Heather Morey (daughter) and her husband Christopher Morey, Patricia Carrigan, Cynthia Carrigan (daughters), and Nachele, Viktoriya and Jayden Wayne (grandchildren).

A celebration of life will be held at Sylvia's home, 3014 W. Second St., The Dalles, on May 15 at noon.

You are loved and you are missed.

Willis "Bill" Martin

Willis "Bill" Martin

Willis "Bill" Martin, 87, local businessman, rancher and farmer, passed away on April 3, 2021, at the Auburn Regional Medical Center in King County.

Bill was born in The Dalles, Ore., on Nov. 27, 1933, to Paul and Geraldine Martin. Bill graduated from The Dalles High School in 1952. In 1957, after working at The Dalles Soda Works, he, along with World War II bomber pilot Herb Gedney, moved to Grays Harbor to form Harbor Pacific Bottling, Inc., a Pepsi-Cola franchise for Grays Harbor and Pacific counties. Bill was known for his innovative nature and was a leader in the formation of Columbia Bottlers Group, a multi-million case production center co-op formed to service the needs of Pepsi bottlers throughout the state. For 60 years, Bill owned and operated Harbor Pacific Bottling, Inc. which now operates under the ownership of his two sons.

Bill married his childhood neighbor and sweetheart, Joan Woolsey, on Sept. 17, 1957, at the First Presbyterian Church in Aberdeen, Wash. In addition to their family, Bill and Joan's true passion together was animals. While enjoying animals of all sizes, Bill particularly explored his passion for horses, llamas, and yaks at their farm in Elma. Bill was a member of the Grays Harbor Sheriff's Posse, raised and raced horses at tracks such as Longacres and Portland Meadows, imported llamas from Bolivia and raised Tibetan yaks. Bill also actively enjoyed farming and managing their ranch in Elma until the last of his days with us.

Bill was also very active in and contributed back to his community in many ways. He was the leader of the formation and construction of Harbor Park, a five-furlong horse track operated at the Elma Fairgrounds from 1982 until 1997. The nearly all volunteer operation was organized by Bill each year who was known to have been pretty convincing in his methods to get others to volunteer their time for the event which successfully brought many people to the Grays Harbor community each year.

Bill is survived by his wife, Joan Martin; his two sons, Shawn D. (Lois) Martin of Aberdeen, and Timothy (Jackie) Martin of Aberdeen; his two daughters, Kelly Martin (Tim Collins) of Cle Elum, Wash., and Patricia (Larry) Carter of Elma, Wash.; along with eight grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Bill's family ask that any memorial donations honoring him be made to PAWS of Grays Harbor.

He was interred at the Elma Masonic Cemetery during a private ceremony on April 12. A celebration of Bill's life will be held at 1 p.m. on May 22 at the family property in Elma. Please contact Tim Martin at 360-470-3476 or email billmartinservice@gmail.com for details.

Arrangements are entrusted to Twibell's Fern Hill Funeral Home in Aberdeen.

Lucy Rice

Lucy Rice

Blessed from the day of her birth, Aug. 31, 1925, Lucy Louise Boyden Rice enjoyed good health, good looks, and a passionate concern for the well-being of others until her death April 11, 2021.

Born in Boylston, Mass., to a family of teachers and ministers, she met and married Dr. Robert H. Rice while both attended Oberlin College. They moved to The Dalles, Ore., with their three children, Pamela Rice Berki, Geoffrey Boyden Rice and Martha Lee Rice, in 1954.

In addition to her children, Mrs. Rice is survived by six grandchildren, Robert William Berki, Leslie Berki Mason, Rebecca Christine Rice, Hannah Elizabeth Rice, Elizabeth Grace Logue, and Sarah Catherine Goodnough, as well as eight great-grandchildren. She will be missed.

Lucy was passionate about protecting wildlife and the environment. She expressed these interests through hiking and bird-watching. Lucy greeted the wildflowers — especially grass widows — as they bloomed each March in the wild places around The Dalles.

Lucy also strived to help her community: Among other activities, she taught English as a second language, served as a Girl Scout leader, and read weekly to elementary school children as a volunteer through SMART.

Her personal passion was her String Quartet, with which she performed on the viola for more than 50 years.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be sent to the Home At Last Humane Society in The Dalles.

Spencer, Libby & Powell is in care of the arrangements.

Herman Peters

Herman Peters

Herman Albert Peters was born April 12, 1930, in Grass Valley, Ore. He died peacefully at his home April 17, 2021. The son of Herman and Clara Peters, he spent his childhood working on the farm, hunting, fishing, playing sports, and while most folks of his generation brag of walking miles to school in the snow ... he drove the bus! He graduated from Sherman County High School as the Most Outstanding Senior Boy. He earned a degree in business from Willamette University and served in the Army before marrying Alice Lary in 1954. They settled in Hood River where he worked at the Hood River Laundry, which led to him starting his own successful carpet cleaning and installation business, the Herm Peters Rug Cleaner Co.

Herm was very involved in the community whether it was: building school playgrounds, constructing and maintaining baseball/softball fields, serving on the board while also coaching Little League and Babe Ruth teams, volunteering as a member of the Local Committee and the PTA, leading Boy Scouts or umpiring youth softball and baseball...he may not have always been the first to arrive, but he was usually the last to leave the event.

After Alice passed away in 1981, Herm reconnected with and married his high school sweetheart Connie Wilson. They enjoyed trips in their RV, golfing, fishing, and spending time with the family. In later years, he volunteered at the Hood River Senior Center and WAAAM.

Herman was preceded in death by his brother, Arden and is survived by his wife Connie, his children Matt (Beth), Dani Tice (Larry), Tim (Kristin), Julann D'Aboy (Bob), and step-daughter Jeanne Cushman, as well as 10 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Per Herm's request, no service will be held. Donations may be made in his name to the Hood River Senior Center. Arrangements under the direction of Anderson's Tribute Center, Hood River, Ore. Visit www.AndersonsTributeCenter.com to leave a note of condolence for the family.

Daniel Halseth

Daniel Halseth

Daniel Wendell Halseth, born in Estacada, Ore., on Jan. 28, 1976, beloved son of Wendell and Christine Halseth, died suddenly on April 9, 2021, in Las Vegas, Nev. Daniel, a graduate of Hood River Valley High School and who earned a Bachelor of Music at Western Oregon State University, had a talent for music which he shared wherever there was a set of drums or a piano nearby. Because of his energy and his talent, Daniel became fondly known as "Drummer Dan." Daniel also graduated from Corbin University with a master in business.

Daniel lived in Addison, Texas, before returning to Las Vegas.

His expertise in IT made Daniel a valuable consultant and facilitator on projects nationwide.

Daniel enjoyed the outdoors. During his walks he would always stop and take pictures and videos of our beautiful world. He lived by the saying "always stop and smell the roses." Daniel walked the walk and always wanted the best for everyone, even if he didn't know the person. He always lifted people up and had a smile, always. Daniel's sincere smile and willing heart made every stranger a friend, and every friend, family. Daniel also used his free time to help returning veterans.

Daniel is survived by his mom, Christine Halseth; brothers Ben (Melissa), Tom (Carmen), Michael (Linda); sister Leslie; two loving children, Dana and Jordan Halseth; nieces and nephew Sammy, Rowan and Brody; and countless cousins and relatives. He is predeceased by his father, Wendell Halseth, and brothers Gerald Halseth and Timothy Halseth.

In lieu of flowers, the Halseth Family welcomes donations to the Daniel Halseth "Hello Friends" Legacy Fund. Contributions will be used to support those organizations Daniel was committed to: Music, Wellness and Veterans. (C/O Andersons Tribute Center 1401 Belmont Ave, Hood River, OR 97031).

A graveside service for Daniel is planned for 10 a.m. on Saturday, April 24 at the Upper Valley Cemetery, 6917 Allen Road, Parkdale, Ore. A gathering is taking place immediately after the graveside service at the Hood River County Fairgrounds, 3020 Wy'east Road, Hood River.
