

OBITUARIES

— PAID NOTICES —

Carrol Wang

Carrol Wang

Carrol Gile Wang was born on Aug. 1, 1947, in Eugene, Ore., the daughter of Everett and Betty (McClain) Gile. She married Willard Palmer Wang Jr. in Redmond, Ore., on Feb. 2, 1970. The couple had two children, Brady and Anthony.

Carrol passed away at her home in Goldendale, Wash., on April 12, 2021, at the age of 73. She was preceded in death by her husband, Willard, and a brother, Donald Gile.

Survivors include her son Brady Wang of Goldendale; her son and daughter-in-law Tony and Jessica Wang of Goldendale; brothers Carl Gile of Mountlake Terrace, Wash.; Michael Gile of Seattle, Wash.; and one grandchild.

A funeral service for Mrs. Wang was held on April 17, with burial at Mountain View IOOF Cemetery in Goldendale. To send condolences to the Wang family, please visit www.gardnerfh.com.

Douglas Woolsey

Douglas Woolsey

Douglas Eugene Woolsey was born in The Dalles, Ore., on March 18, 1938, to Harold and Doris Woolsey. Doug grew up on Trevitt's street neighborhood with his elder sister, Joan, and younger siblings, Bonnie and Sam. Doug grew up interested in playing football, baseball and basketball. Doug began learning how to play the piano and clarinet in his early youth. Doug also loved to play marbles as a young man and won the Oregon State marble tournament in 1950.

Doug attended the University of Oregon, and enlisted and served in the National Guard. After graduation with a bachelor's degree in business, Doug joined the sales team at Firestone Corporation. Doug married and had two daughters and resided in San Jose, Calif. In 1969, Doug and his family moved back to The Dalles and started working at the family tire business Woolsey Tires with his father, Harold, and brother, Sam.

In 1978 Doug became a real estate agent and began selling real estate with Realty World. In 1980, Doug was awarded the title of the "Million Dollar Man" as he had sold a million dollars' worth of properties that year. Doug later moved on and worked at Booth and Kelly Real estate and Insurance. Doug eventually opened his own office, Doug Woolsey Realtor, on Washington Street.

Doug was an accomplished musician and performer. He played woodwind horns for various bands throughout his lifetime. Doug played clarinet and toured with the High Five Polka Band for more than 30 years, played saxophone in the Gateway Presbyterian Church Praise Band for more than 20 years, and was a member of local Jazz Bands and performed with the Gorge Winds Concert Band as well as other local musicians both professionally and just for the love of playing.

Doug had a deep faith and love for Jesus Christ. He was a devoted member of Gateway Presbyterian Church, a member of the Full Gospel Businessman Fellowship International, the men's bible study group at Gateway, he regularly studied his bible and was an attendant of Christian retreats and revivals. Doug had great affection for the service and members at The Life in Christ Center and Christian Science Church, both of The Dalles.

Doug passed away on April 9, 2021. He is survived by his two daughters and their families, Daliea Thompson, Rebecca and her husband Martin Gooch, both of The Dalles, Ore.; sister Joan (Woolsey) Martin of Elma, Wash.; brother Samuel and his wife Ann Marie Woolsey of The Dalles; four grandchildren, Leion Thompson, Errol Gooch, Aislynn Gooch and her husband Kevin McHale, and Evan Gooch; very special great-granddaughter, Serene Gooch; and his much loved great-nephew Arthur Woolsey, who Doug nicknamed "Lil Abner."

A celebration of life and memorial for Doug will be held on Saturday, May 8 at Gateway Presbyterian Church at 2 p.m., where friends and family are invited to attend. This event is also available in a livestream format and will be available for viewing on the The Dalles Gateway Presbyterian Church webpage and Facebook page.

Memorial donations can be made to Gateway Presbyterian church in honor of Douglas Woolsey.

Lyola Workman

Lyola Workman

Lyola Holden Chase Workman, 95, of Gig Harbor, Wash., passed away April 19, 2021. She was born to Enos and Hazel Holden on May 25, 1925, in Franklin, Idaho. She graduated from high school and spent the next few years living with her sisters in Salt Lake City, Utah, and southern California where she worked at Yellow Cab Company for several years. She took classes at night school to build her secretarial skills.

Lyola's sister introduced her to Wilfred (Bill) Chase in California. They were married three years later on Jan. 14, 1950. They lived in California and southern Oregon before moving to Hood River, Ore., where they were longtime residents. After retirement, they also lived in Woodburn and Salem, Ore.

Lyola is survived by her daughter, Donna Chase Barr, of Gig Harbor, and her son, Robert Chase, of Emmett, Idaho. She is also survived by nine grandchildren and 23 great-grandchildren.

Following Bill's death in 1997, Lyola married Benare (Ben) Workman in 1998. They lived in Prineville, Ore., near Ben's family until his death in 2007. Following Ben's death, Lyola joined her daughter and son-in-law, Leroy Barr, in their Milford, N.H., home until moving with them to Washington in 2017.

Lyola was a life-long member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. She gave many hours of service through her regular activity in the church. She had a great love for doing genealogy and temple work and spent many hours in these activities following retirement. She and Bill served a mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Pennsylvania as well.

Lyola worked in several secretarial positions during her life. In Hood River, she was employed for many years at the telephone company, Webster Orchards and the Hood River County School District.

Lyola was one of 15 children. They have all preceded her in passing. In life, she maintained ties with all her living siblings and to all her extended family. Many nieces and nephews still talked and visited with in her last year. She loved her children and grandchildren tremendously and she counted her great-grandchildren as wonderful blessings as they came along. Lyola had a special love for little children, whom she enjoyed watching and listening to. Many teenagers called her a friend as well as they enjoyed her sense of fun and humor. She continued to have contact with some of them as they grew to adulthood and visited with her from time to time.

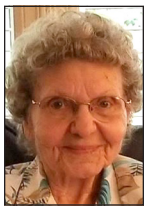

Lyola was known for her remarkable good health and vigor. She was very appreciative of this blessing. It helped her to live up to her life motto of "Endure to the End." Her mind remained sound and one of her nieces taught her how to use a tablet when she was about 90. That tablet was a constant companion until the end, even as her dwindling eyesight and hearing made it difficult to use. She listened to her scriptures over and over and to gospel books, saying that she was

"studying for her final test."

Funeral services will be held May 1 at 1 p.m. at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Hood River. You may briefly greet with family members prior to the funeral at noon. Face masks and social distancing are required. Interment will be at the Pine Grove Butte Cemetery following the funeral services.

To leave a message or memory for the family, please go to www.dallastribute.com. The Dallas Mortuary Tribute Center is caring for the family.

Rolene Henningsgard

Rolene Henningsgard

Rolene Henningsgard was born in Seward, Neb., on Oct. 11, 1928, to Adolph and Clara Hermann. She grew up with four siblings, Harold, Milton, Roland and Willa Mae, in Fall City, Neb. She graduated from Fall City High School and then went to Beauty School to become a beautician.

Rolene married Robert Buford Titus on May 21, 1950, and together they had two children, Rick and Christi. Robert died in a car accident in 1957 and three years later, Rolene moved to Oregon to be with her in-laws.

In 1961, Rolene met Lawrence Henningsgard. They were married on Aug. 12, 1962, and they had many wonderful years together. Rolene worked at Duckwall Fruit until they bought Hackets Appliance Store, where Larry had worked for many years. They owned and operated the store until they retired.

Rolene enjoyed being outside, either in her vegetable garden or tending to her beautiful flowers. She was very active in her church and loved the view of Mount Hood from her home.

After Larry passed away in January 2013, Rolene found comfort in her family, her deep faith and church, friends and her garden. She moved to Brookside Manor in 2017.

Rolene was preceded in death by her brothers and sister, first husband Sonny (Robert Titus) and Larry Henningsgard. She is survived by her son Rick Titus; daughter Christi (husband Blane) Berry; grandson Jordan (wife Stephanie) Berry; great-granddaughter Charlotte; stepdaughters Margie Beacher and Sherry Nicole; and stepson Cary Henningsgard.

Rolene passed away on April 9, 2021 at Brookside Manor in Hood River, Ore. The family would like to thank Heart of Hospice and the staff who helped Rolene at Brookside.

Memorial contributions can be made to Heart of Hospice or Immanuel Lutheran church in memory of Rolene, c/o Anderson's Tribute Center, 1401 Belmont Ave., Hood River, OR 97031. Visit www.AndersonsTributeCenter.com to leave a note of condolence for the family.

Timothy Arends

Timothy Arends

Beloved husband and father Timothy Ray Arends passed away on Thursday, April 15, 2021, at Providence Hood River Memorial Hospital in Hood River, Ore., with daughter Grace by his side.

Born July 30, 1950, in Portland, Ore., to Henrietta and Edward Arends, he lived most of his life in The Dalles, Ore. Growing up with his brothers, Ed and John Arends, Tim cared for his mother, Henrietta, until her passing.

Tim graduated from The Dalles High School in 1969 with many of his lifelong friends. After graduating high school and spending a year in college, Tim spent many months feeding his passion for travel in Europe and Morocco. After returning to Oregon, he eventually ended up working on the Columbia River for Tidewater Barge Lines. In 1975, Tim married Sharlene Hamlett in Washington. They divorced in 1984 but always remained friends. The second half of the 1980s, Tim continued his passion for travelling, taking many trips to Mexico to visit his cousin, Alice, and time exploring Thailand with friends from The Dalles.

Meeting the love of his life, Gail Carter, at the Barbeque, Tim and Gail married on July 28, 1989. Soon Tim's family was complete with the birth of the couple's greatest gift, Grace Lynne.

Wanting to be home more with his family, Tim bought two apartment buildings and the family business, Bend in the River Rentals, was born.

Tim, Gail, and Grace settled down to life in The Dalles for the next 32 years. Raising their daughter and being among family and a multitude of long-lasting friendships, Tim thrived in his role of family man. Tim and Gail shared a love of antiquing and collecting, birdwatching, taking drives to hunt for wildflowers and living in and loving the scenery of the Gorge.

Tim was preceded in death by his parents, Edward Everett Arends (1919-1954) and Henrietta Elizabeth Cluff Arends (1917-2002), and his brothers Edward Everett Arends (1941-2015) and John Henry Arends (1942-1985).

He is survived by his wife, Gail Carter Arends and daughter, Grace Lynne Arends, seven nieces and seven maternal cousins.

Donations in Tim's memory may be made to Home At Last in The Dalles or The American Cancer Society.

We want to thank Tim's lifelong friends and his family for their continued support during Tim's illness and beyond.

Visit www.AndersonsTributeCenter.com to share your memories of Tim and his life.

And as Tim would say, "Go away, you're bugging me..." Arrangements are under the direction of Anderson's Tribute Center • Celilo Chapel, 204 E. Fourth St., The Dalles.

Dwain White

Dwain White

Dwain E. White, 90, formerly of Spokane, White Salmon and Carson, Wash., passed away peacefully on April 2, 2021, at Infinity Hospice in Las Vegas, NV.

Dwain was born in Moorewood, Okla., on July 6, 1930, to Lawson and Goldie (Lovelace) White, one of 10 children.

Dwain graduated from White Salmon High School. After high school, he joined the U.S. Army. Dwain worked for Williams & Co. (formerly El Paso Natural Gas and Northwest Pipeline) for more than 30 years as a line foreman and then inspector.

In 1955, he married Verna Kimbro of White Salmon and together they had a daughter, Bonnie. After the marriage ended, Dwain married Dona Jean Baker of Spokane and he adopted her three children (Kim, Mike and Marc). Dwain and Dona also had a son, Kevin. Dwain, Dona and their family moved to Ignacio, Colo., during Dwain's career with Williams & Co. In retirement, they settled in Spokane and travelled frequently in the Southwest and Mexico with their RV. His wife Dona passed in 2007; Dwain re-married Verna in 2008 and they lived in White Salmon, then Carson. Although they recently divorced, they remained close friends. Dwain moved to Las Vegas in 2020 to be near his son.

Dwain is survived by daughter Bonnie DeGraf (Dave) of Carson; stepdaughter Kim Kleppelid (Kevin) of Baker, Mont.; stepsons Marc White of Bayfield, Colo., and Mike White of Spokane; and son Kevin White of Las Vegas; dear friend Verna White of Carson; and many nieces, nephews, siblings, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

No service is planned.

Jeffrey Krier

Jeffrey Krier

Jeffrey Cunningham Krier was born March 24, 1950, and passed away March 22, 2021. Always a force, Jeff's life is summed up best in the words of his daughter Samantha:

"My dad left this earth and went to sing with the angels in heaven. My dad was such a gentle, kind soul, with a personality as big as the state of Texas. He was loud, funny, goofy, a sports fanatic — Giants, 49ers, UO

Ducks were his favorite — he loved to sing, to watch and talk sports with anyone, loved food, was always dressed in a suit and tie, he was very religious and a devoted Episcopalian, a friend, a grandpa, a brother, an uncle, a cousin and father. He never missed a sporting event and sang the national anthem at just about every one of Josh's and my games and was probably the loudest in the stands yelling 'Hubba Hubba!' If you knew my dad, you knew his zest for life. Due to physical and mental difficulties, the last few years were incredibly hard for him and he fought as hard as he could. It was his time, and he is no longer in pain, but in peace."

Born in The Dalles to Dorothy Jean Cunningham and Malcolm Sampson Krier, he graduated from The Dalles High School and Lewis & Clark College in Portland, Ore. In 1977, he married Debbie Tooley. He was in sales most of his professional career (Meadow Outdoor Advertising) and volunteered in many community activities, using his powerful tenor voice in musical theater, the Cascade Singers, River City Dudes barbershop quartet, and sports announcing. He was a cradle Episcopalian, actively involved in St. Paul's throughout his life.

He is survived by son Joshua Krier (Rachel) and daughters Samantha Tenneson (Andrew) and Katee Krier; five grandchildren; brother James Krier (Margey) and sister Patricia Krier (Tom); and many beloved nieces, nephews, and cousins. He was preceded in death by his parents, Malcolm and Jean.

When we can once again gather, hopefully in the summer or fall, there will be a celebration of life service at St. Paul's with time to sing, share stories, and celebrate Jeff's goodness and humor. Donations may be made in Jeff's name to St. Paul's Episcopal Church in The Dalles, Ore.

Anna "Pauline" Kennedy

Anna Pauline Kennedy

Anna "Pauline" (Fletcher) Kennedy, 86, passed away on April 17, 2021, surrounded by her family and an orchard full of beautiful white blossoms, her favorite flower color. Pauline was born Sept. 24, 1934, in Hood River and grew up and worked on the family farm in Odell with her sister Patricia. She attended Odell High School, where she was a member of the Pep Squad and volleyball team. She met her husband John in high school and they were married shortly after in December 1954. She and John lived and worked on the farm that was started by her parents, Shorty and Ann Fletcher.

Pauline had many hobbies. She enjoyed gardening, the sewing club, knitting, weaving, playing bridge, golf and cooking. Pauline was a fabulous cook and always enjoyed entertaining and cooking for friends and family.

She was proud to have traveled to London and Australia with her grandson Jack to attend Le Cordon Bleu Cooking Schools. Later in life, she and John enjoyed traveling and took many memorable trips with close friends.

Perhaps her greatest love was being around her kids, grandkids and great-granddaughter. She loved hosting holidays and birthday celebrations at her home, attending the grandkids' sporting events and just getting the family together as often as possible.

Pauline was preceded in death by her parents and husband John, who passed away in 2001. She is survived by her sister Pat Pattison (Bill), nephew Don (who gave her the nickname "NeeNee" that is still used to this day by all of her kids and grandkids) and nephew Pete; son Patrick (Mary Beth), grandson Jack (Ashley), grandson Andy (Sadie) and great-granddaughter Quinn; daughter Tracy Clark of Portland (Tom), granddaughter Lily and grandson Jay; and son Barry (Carrie), grandson Parker and granddaughter Katie.

The family would like to thank all of the wonderful family and friends of John and Pauline who have reached out and shared condolences. A private family celebration will be held at a later date. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Providence Hospice of The Gorge c/o Anderson's Tribute Center. Visit www.AndersonsTributeCenter.com to leave a note of condolence for the family.

CONTINUED PAGE 9

Serving Mid-Columbia families with kindness & compassion at their time of need

Victoria Lara, Derek Krentz, Domanique Krentz

Gardner Funeral Home & Columbia Hills Memorial Chapel

White Salmon & Goldendale

509-493-1323 509-773-4646

gfhchmc@gmail.com | www.Gardnerfh.com

One call to one place... in your time of need.

Your local crematory and funeral home serving the Columbia River Gorge since 1921

HOOD RIVER (541) 386-1000 THE DALLES (541) 296-2600
1401 Belmont Ave. Hood River 204 East 4th St. The Dalles

www.AndersonsTributeCenter.com