Notable incidents:
 Officers responded to two non-injury traffic crashes, both in Bingen, and assisted with a non-injury traffic crash in White Salmon.

Officers assisted Skyline Hospital with locating a patient.

Hood River Police

May 16-22

During the week of May 16, the Hood River Police Department responded to the following crimes that resulted in arrests: Assault (one), driving under the influence of intoxicants (two), eluding (one), reckless driving (two) and trespass (two).

Notable incidents:

■ Four thefts were reported — a vehicle from Freedom Loop, a jacket from a vehicle, money taken from a physician's office bank account, and camera footage revealed a wallet dropped in a parking lot being picked up by a female, who then left the scene.

■ Two burglaries were reported at local businesses.

■ Two non-injury motor vehicle crashes; a vehicle was towed from one incident after striking a semi-truck while merging onto I-84.

■ A report of criminal mischief involved property damage to a vehicle, with likely forced entry.

■ A male transient was cited for trespass after entering a residential property without permission.

■ Officers responded to a report of a dog bite. The victim was bit in the right thigh after the dog had gotten loose from its yard.

■ A resident received fake $100 bills during a Western Union transaction at a local store.

The Dalles Police

May 21-27

During this time period, The Dalles Police responded to the following crimes that resulted in arrests: Assault

(one), harassment (one), menacing (one), driving under the influence of intoxicants (one), and warrants (three).

Notable incidents:

■ Five car prowls were reported. In one incident, subjects were detained by the reporting party and a power tool, drugs and money were seized. In another, a homeless male was found sitting in a vehicle and was thought to have slept there during the night.

■ A tree fell onto the road at E. 11th and Lewis, blocking both lanes and damaging a vehicle.

■ Officers attempted to stop a vehicle with the driver's side headlight out. Officers pursued the vehicle after it failed to yield, but terminated the pursuit as the vehicle continued on.

In another incident, officers pursued a motorcycle with a defective license plate light; officers terminated the pursuit due to high rate of speeds.

■ Three catalytic converters were reported as stolen.

■ A two vehicle traffic crash was injury sent a male to the emergency room.

The female driver was cited for careless driving (crash) and failure to obey a traffic control device. Both vehicles were towed.

■ A two vehicle traffic crash at W. Eighth and Cherry Heights Road saw one driver taken to the hospital by medics; the other driver was not injured. One vehicle was towed.

■ Criminal mischief I was reported to have occurred at Heritage Heights Apartments, W. 10th Street, after a female discovered two of her vehicle's tires had been slashed and windows smashed. Blood was located on the windshield that was collected by officers.

Wasco County Sheriff

May 21-27

During this time period, The Dalles Police responded to the following crimes that resulted in arrests: Driving under the influence of intoxicants (one) and warrants (three).

Notable incidents:

■ A resident of Bend reported losing a firearm on Endersby Road on the morning of May 22.

■ Two vehicles were reported as stolen, as well as a popup camper. Additionally, two car prowls were reported, as was the theft of an electric timer for an irrigation system.

■ An injury traffic crash occurred northbound on Highway 197 at milepost 63. A trailer tire came off of a passing vehicle, which struck the victim vehicle and caused the driver to crash. The victim was transported to a hospital in Madras via ambulance and the vehicle was towed.

■ Deputies engaged in the pursuit of a vehicle traveling at high speeds on W. Chenoweth Creek Road. The vehicle crashed and the female suspect was thought to be in a canyon; she was later located and admitted to being the driver. The vehicle was ultimately towed and discovered it had been stolen. The female was cited for unauthorized use of a motor vehicle, reckless driving, and cited for a statewide felony warrant for possession of methamphetamine. Multiple agencies assisted.
