FLORENCE MALE
QUARTETTE WILL GIVE MUSICAL FEB. 20TH
The Florence Male Quartette consisting of E. C. Wayman, Frank Monroe, L. J. Pourtales and E. S. Dyer, with Miss Edith Yates as accompanist, under the direction of Frank Smith will make their first appearance in Florence on Friday February 20th.

The quartette will be assisted by several of our local musicians in instrumental and vocal selections. This musical organization has been rehearsing for some time in their preparation for their first musical event, and promise something of merit in the way of entertainment.

MAPLETON HOLDS
"NEW COUNTY" MEETING
Tuesday evening the citizens of Mapleton held a meeting at the Slemmon's Racket Store and discussed the proposition of dividing Lane county.

A permanent organization was formed, and Robert Clow, J. C. Beck and Joe Slemmons were selected as delegates to attend a general meeting soon to be called in the interest of county division.

TUG ROBERTS ARRIVED IN PORT SATURDAY
The tug Roberts arrived here Saturday morning from Portland after an absence of over a month. The tug boat was thoroughly overhauled, and a new boiler which has a steam test of 175 pounds pressure was installed. New valves and fittings of the best make were used in making the connections.

Capt. Robert Jones brought the tug in, but left on the L. Roscoe for Portland where he will take charge of the Geo. R. Vosberg, which runs between Portland and Nehalem.

Capt. L. Snyder made the trip in on the Roberts and has taken command.

Johnson, Anderson Co. jetty contractors who own the tug, expended a considerable sum to put the boat in first class condition for service during this season's work.

SIUSLAW COMMERCIAL CLUB CHOOSE SLOGAN

At the regular meeting of the Commercial Club Monday night the slogans offered in competition for the prize were read. None seem to be what the club desired so the members present were requested to write one or more, and a short recess was taken for that purpose. A committee of five were appointed to canvass all slogans and present their selection of three to the club for a vote.

The vote showed a majority in favor of "Florence; An Invitation of Undeveloped Wealth." As this was offered at the meeting and after the contest closed, no reward was given the one suggesting it.

SOCIETY

The latest in afternoon society organizations is the Tuesday Auction Bridge Club which had its first meeting with Mrs. R. F. Averill Tuesday afternoon.

Four tables were in use and a very delightful contest in Auction Bridge was enjoyed. Mrs. Rudolph Brynd winning highest honors.

A dainty luncheon was served during the afternoon. The members present were: Mrs. Capt. J. Bergeman, Mrs. Wm. Kyle, Mrs. E. F. Leefe, Mrs. Mearle C. Fox, Mrs. Irwin Smith, Mrs. David Kyle, Mrs. John W. Bergman, Mrs. J. W. Ford, Mrs. W. Fotheringham, Mrs. Rudolph Brynd and Miss Mary Cassidy.

Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 4. Mrs. L. J. Pourtales entertained at an afternoon party, complimenting her mother, Mrs. Chas. Babcock of Northfield, Minnesota. Five Hundred was played at four tables, Mrs. J. W. Ford, winning the prize. At 4:30 a very delicious luncheon was served. Those present were Mesdames, M. C. Fox, J. W. Ford, T. J. Hudson, I. A. Smith, E. F. Surface, Wm. Brynd, Rudolph Brynd, Dave Kyle, Wm. Kyle, E. F. Leefe, D. Crutcher, Eaton, R. C. Wygant, J. P. Cox, W. S. Irwin, J. W. Bergman and Frank Smith.

Mrs. W. H. O'Kelley, entertained Saturday evening in honor of Miss Ruth Crutcher who has spent the past six months visiting in Florence and will soon leave for her home.

Five hundred was the entertaining feature, the prizes being won by Mrs. R. B. Alles, and Mr. C. J. Mahoney. Luncheon was served, after which many beautiful selections were rendered on the victrola.

On Thursday afternoon, Feb. 5th Edna McCornack celebrated her 5th birthday by entertaining twelve of her little friends at the home of Mrs. E. McCornack. Games were played and a delicious luncheon was served. The table was decorated in a unique and pretty manner. A large cake covered with red and white frosting and holding five candles of the same color surrounded by a typical rail fence of stick candy. The favors were small dolls dressed in red and white and much to their joy each little girl was given one to carry home.

After a happy afternoon the guests dispersed wishing the hostess many more birthdays. Those present were; Bessie Hudson, Vera Kyle, Verbena Morris, Lorie Hindshaw, Beatrice Grice, Babe Grice, Dorothy Drumm, Lily Drumm, Esther Surface, Geraldine Catell, Emily and Edna McCornack.

The first valentine party of the season was given Tuesday evening by Miss Grace East in her cozy apartments on Washington street.

Five hundred was played affording much enjoyment. The first prizes were won by Mr. and Mrs. J. McCrae, the second prizes by Miss Bossen and Mr. C. J. Mahoney. Luncheon was served by the hostess, assisted by her mother Mrs. E. J. East.

Mrs. T. C. Saubert, entertained the Sunshine club of Acme Thursday afternoon. About twenty-five ladies were present coming on a special boat. The affair was in the nature of a thimble party with a social good time enjoyed by those present. Coffee and cake was served by the hostess.

A very unique Birthday party was given last week at the home of Mrs. David. It was under the auspices of the Evangelical Ladies' Aide society. Each lady invited celebrated her own birthday by bringing pennies corresponding to her years. After a time of conversation an elaborate lunch was served.

Mrs. Geo. Schroeder, entertained a party of friends, in honor of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Alice Hite of Coquille, Wednesday afternoon. Five hundred was played, and a dainty luncheon was enjoyed.
