TWO LETTERS OF RECOMMENDATION

The following letters are of interest as they refer to Elwood W. Roberts who announces himself as candidate for the nomination of County Commissioner on the Democrat ticket.
To Whom it May Concern: I have been acquainted in a business way with Elwood W.
Roberts of Waiaterville, Lane County, Oregon, for several years. I have had considerable business dealings with him, and can unhesitatingly state that they have been entirely satisfactory.
I have found Mr. Roberts to be thoroughly dependable, a man in whom explicit confidence can be placed, and from my dealings with him, consider him a good, careful business man, and worthy the confidence of his fellow men.
Yours truly,
(Signed) A. H. Averill,
The Averill Machinery Co.
Portland, Ore.

To Whom it May Concern:—
I am informed that Mr. Elwood W. Roberts, of Waiaterville, Lane County, Oregon, is a candidate for nomination, as a Democrat, for County Commissioner of Lane County. Entirely aside from any partisan considerations (for I am not a Democrat) I should be mighty glad to see him get the nomination and election to that office. It would surely be in the interest of a square deal and efficiency in the public service, and our public service needs much of both. Mr. Roberts is a worker and he can be trusted.
I have known Mr. Roberts quite intimately for ten years past and I cheerfully testify to his honesty, capacity, industry and large general efficiency. He has practical ideas of affairs and the courage to put them into effect.
Lane county will be fortunate to have so good a man in public office; and if it knows him as I do I think the voters will see that he gets the job.

Very truly,
J. M. Lawrence,
