Little Torches.

BY W. E. JOHNSON.

The divine law of retribution is part of the system of government under which we live and die.—[The Midland.

Yes, "retribution", revenge and vindictiveness are the leading attributes of the "divine" mind. We prefer human sympathy and human charity to any such supernatural savagery.

Salvation, in the Bible sense, is a work done on the human soul. It is a change, not merely of the activities of the soul, but of the soul itself. The change is in the nature of the soul, not in the faculties composing it.—[The Methodist Recorder.

So God makes such a botch job of constructing souls that they all have to be made over again! And still he is both "omnipotent and omniscient".

The purpose of God will stand in spite of all the efforts, the malice and power of earth and hell combined.—[Christian Work.

If God has such a cinch on the situation, why build a church at every cross roads to help him out with his various schemes? What's the use of getting out ropes and pulleys to help the sun to rise, when Sol is abundantly able to come up every morning and does so of his own accord?

He [Ingersoll] did not know there was a devil. Well, he wasn't in eternity ten minutes before he learned more about the devil than he could describe in ten hours. He did not believe there is a hell, and, poor soul, he wasn't there three minutes before he was hopping around in agony, crying: "I didn't think it was like this; I didn't think it was like this!"—[Rev. Jas. Boyd Brady.

There you have the inspired mouthings of a godly blatherskite. What a sacred comfort it must be to this holy son-of-a-gun to imagine his enemies tortured by fire by an "all-merciful" Jo Jo!

The heart and core of the whole matter concerning the sabbath is, it is the Lord's day. Not a day named in his honor and simply observed a monument in memory of him. But his day by right of special ownership. His by right of eminent domain, a divine reservation in the original grant of time to men.—[Richmond Christian Advocate.

Perhaps the day belongs to God by right of "eminent domain", but it belongs to man by right of discovery, conquest and possession. If God is so finicky about our keeping this day "holy", why don't he put us to sleep from Saturday night till Monday morning?

Remember, if you send us the names and addresses of 25 of your Liberal friends and acquaintances, we will make you a present of a copy of the Torch of Reason Song Book No. 1. This will only cost you a few minutes' work and a two-cent stamp.
