Clock Stars.

There are several hundred stars LIBERAL CLASSICS. LIBERAL CLASSICS. whose positions have been established with the greatest accuracy by the most careful observations at and contains more and better infor- a number of principal observatories of the world. If a star's exact position is known, it can readily be calculated when it will pass the the news of the nation and the meridian of any given place-that is, the instant it will cross a north and south line through the place. The data regarding these stars are all published in the nautical almanacs, which are got out by several different observatories, for the use of navigators and all others who have use for them. These stars are known as "clock stars."-[T. B. Wilson, in Popular Science Monthly.

> At the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo, in 1901, the buildings will be lighted up by electricity generated by gas engines using natural gas.

In the experiments which have been carried on in South Africa with the Marconi system in wireless telegraphy it was found that cannonading had no effect on the system.

Twenty sets of the Marconi system will be installed on our warships. The first charge for each set will be $500, and an annual rental of $500 per set will be paid to the company.

The first Chinese electric railway has been opened, and connects the Pekin Railway station and the south gate of the capital. The Chinese have not any very serious objections to electricity, as it does not profane the air as does the locomotive, which irritates the spirits of the water and air.

The Rome correspondent of The London Lancet has made a suggestion that the salt which from the earliest ages has been mingled with the water for ceremonial church purposes should be modified so as to make it a true disinfectant.

Such funny things one finds about God in the newspapers. W. J. Bryan said in a speech not long since: "When I have a good thought, I believe God put it there; but when I have a bad thought I do not blame God."

A descriptive catalogue of all the best Freethought works free on application to Dellquest & Andrews, Secular Booksellers, El Paso, Texas.
