WALT LIVELY 436-1484
Licensed and Bonded

I wonder what the sea
is like today.

Is she stormy and ugly,
blindly furious,
tossing and turning
under pregnant black clouds.

Or is she flexing her muscles, disgorging heaps of seaweed and jellyfish upon the shore, frightening us by eating
great chunks of shoreline, showing us glimpses
of the inevitable ending when we all return to her.

Maybe she's playful and frisky
like a kitten,

Or is she still and morose,
slick and silent,
unmoving in a mood of introverted reflection.

Or is she clean and bright,
joyous under clear skies,
enjoying her sense of being.

I wonder what the sea
is like today.

Bonnie is so beautiful.

I look at her
and my heart, and eyes,
fill to overflowing.

These are loves
rolling down my cheeks.

POETRY

BY WALT LIVELY

I
write
Confusion
walks
the corridors
of my mind
feeling
perfectly
at home.
blank verse
because
my mind
has
the same
inclination.
