Dear Friends,

As I sit here on this terrible blustery day, I finally find that I have a few minutes to write a long overdue letter to this community. First of all, let me say the Lively family is doing well and it's because of all of you that we are doing so well. We could not have made it through this difficult time without all your prayers, thoughts, kind words and deeds. I felt particularly blessed for having such a wonderful place to live and dear friends who gave of their time and energy to cook for us, visit with us, play music for us or "Walt-sit" for a while over the last couple of months I have had the opportunity to share my experiences with friends who live elsewhere and their response is always one of amazement when they learn of the support I received in this community. I also want to thank you for making Walt's Memorial Service so special. I had it taped for friends and relatives who could not be present. Since then I have listened to it many times and have taken a lot of comfort in all your words, laughter and tears. I just want all of you to know how much I appreciate you and when the going gets rough for you, you know who to call. I'll definitely be there!

Love to all,
Bonnie and Heather Lively

It is a warm sunset a cooling breeze a picturesque view at the surf's edge... and a lovely bottle of wine from that dinky little shop on the main drag in Cannon Beach operated by Laurel Hand.

I JUST DIDN'T KNOW
The year is 1971 and everything is groovy in Any Little Town, USA. But, it's not groovy "over there" where war is raging. The Viet Nam War. Some people agreed with it others didn't. Me? I was a Junior in High School, the war was so distant, so far away, until one day, when it was brought home to me. A family friend, Steve, was over there, with many other soldiers fighting for his life on the front lines.

I had been writing to him and after having sent many letters and receiving no response I sent him a letter complaining and nagging about his lack of politeness, in not writing.

A few weeks later, my Mother and I went to the Post Office and out she came, with a letter from Steve. I was so excited! Little did I know my life was about to change. I tore into the letter only to find myself staring back at the letter I had written. A big X scratched through it, and on the back Steve said, "You wonder why I don't write? What am I supposed to write about? How many men, women, and children I've killed today? Or, how about what a burning body smells like?"

Steve

I was mortified! I remember sitting there with tears in my eyes, saying, "Mama, I'm so sorry. I just didn't know!" We hugged and cried and vowed to be more sensitive to the world around us.

Steve was one of the lucky ones. He came home alive, but his sad eyes told the story. I wonder where Steve is today? I owe him an apology and a hug.

Sincerely, Wendy Vorce

Why We Oppose
Votes For Men

1. Because a man's place is in the army.
 2. Because no really manly man wants to settle any question otherwise than by fighting about it.
 3. Because if men should adopt reasonable methods women will no longer fight to them.
 4. Because men will lose their charm if they step out of their natural sphere and interest themselves in other women's than feats of arms, uniforms and drills.
 5. Because men are too emotional to elect. Their conduct at baseball games and political conventions shows this, while their innate tendency to appeal to force renders them particularly unfit for the rule of government.
- Alice Duer Miller, 1915. quoted by Linda Allen from the AFSC Women's Newsletter.
