LOCALS RULE!

For our surfing column this month we offer "Locals Rule" a comic collaboration between 43 year old Mar and his 13 year old son Rory. Mar has been surfing the "Edge" for 27 years, and quotes a friend who says, "If we don't teach the younger surfers, then the assholes pushing people around the beach are their teachers."

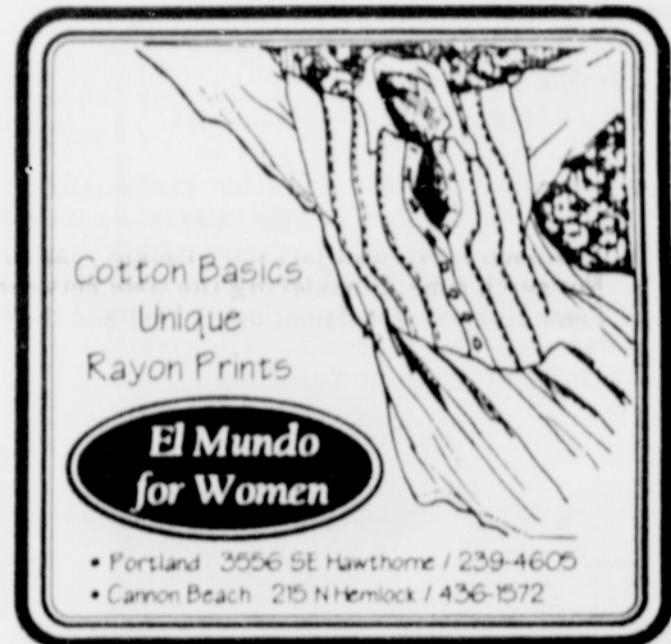

We look forward to future strips on Native American Surfers, Prehistoric Oregon Geology, and Surfing against Sexism.
