

We are delighted to welcome to these pages former City Councilor, Dada Artist, and Publisher of The Rocker, our own Darling John Fraser and his intimate if perhaps libelous View From The Van. (Have your lawyers call his lawyers.)

View from the "VAN"

--- So all the "Boys" from the fire station decided to head to Vegas for cheap thrills in October. Duane and Mike Johnson, Jim Osburn, and others spent 3 days in the city of sin without benefit of wives or girlfriends. Be sure to ask them about the Mustang Ranch outing!

--- Tayna Hardings latest lover is from Cannon Beach! The job of being a shill for a Japanese wrestler doesn't distract the demure young lady from her one true love and she makes mucho trips to the coast to consummate their love.

--- OK, OK, THE ROCKER is dead after three years of fun. Just too much work for the thrill. Please keep track of all future gossip for this column. Thanks for the memories.

--- Would you believe that John Kitshaber has been in Cannon Beach no less than twice without a word or picture of it to be seen in the local Gazette --- Guess that means that you-know-who is backing you-know-what.

--- Say, Ken Cambell want the whole town of CB to know that, on Wednesday, when he's closed at Bill's Tavern and doing the books, he'd like you to tap a coin on the window to get his attention and drop in and just say "hi" --- If he doesn't hear you at first, just keep tapping!

--- The CB Art's Association has made its annual award to the shortest artist in the community and little Sally LeCaff won! --- Apparently her addition to crack cocaine didn't sway the judges.

--- Bill Itman and Andy Kerr were returning from a gallery outing in Seattle with their dog Crackers when the doors to the elevator closed on the leash, leaving them on one side and the dog on the other. --- Panic ensued when the leash starting moving up the closed doors! (Dog is fine)
