The Western Shoshone Defense Project invites all citizens and supporters of the Western Shoshone Nation to the 3rd Annual

Spring Gathering

at the Dann Ranch
Crescent Valley
Nevada

March
23rd-27th
1995

Please join us for the 3rd Annual Spring Gathering. Each year the Gathering provides an opportunity for supporters of the Western Shoshone to meet and learn more about the issues surrounding indigenous sovereignty. This year we are especially hopeful that the Gathering will be a time for the Newe (The People) to come together to assess the past years successes and failures, putting our hearts and minds together to envision a brighter future. Representatives of other Native American Nations will be here to share insight and knowledge based upon their own people's experiences. Activities will include sunrise ceremonies, sweats, talk circles, and a feast.

What to Bring: We ask that all participants come as self-sufficient as possible. You'll need a tent, warm sleeping bag and/or blankets, warm clothes, rain jacket, toilet paper, flashlight or lantern, cup, plate and utensils. We'll be camping on the valley floor at about 5000 ft elevation. The weather at this time of year is unpredictable; it could be snow, it could be muddy, it could be warm and dry, so be prepared! While we hope to be able to feed everyone, please bring sufficient food for your own needs just in case. A camp stove would also be useful. Bulk food donations for the community kitchen will help keep everyone fed. Come early and stay late! Volunteers are needed to help set-up, cook, and clean-up. Donations (materials/money/energy) are always welcome. The W.S.D.P. is committed to a code of non-violence. Alcohol, drugs and firearms are STRICTLY FORBIDDEN!!!

How to Get Here: Crescent Valley is located about half way between Reno and Salt Lake City. Follow Interstate 80, taking Exit 261 (State Route 306, Beowawe/Crescent Valley). Proceed south on SR 306 for 19 miles. After entering the town of Crescent Valley look for signs.
