

BLAME IT ON THE STARS

Aries: Perseverance furthers, especially if you focus your energies at home. Putter with purpose, revamp with a vengeance, not merely in the world of matter but in your emotional life as well. Joint activity isn't exactly your forte but the rewards of cooperation are too obvious for your self will to ignore. Late in the month, shift gears and watch your back. The cleansing fire of Mars descends on your close relationships. To the blind, all things are sudden.

Taurus: Feeling a little frisky, are we? Ten pounds of party in an eight pound bag? Indulge yourself wisely with friends but resist the urge to get figuratively drunk with strangers. Listen to children, teach them well. Your itch to gamble on something is best scratched on horses worth the bet. Invest in friends and family, run off for wild weekends with those who tickle your fancy. Sit by the swimming pool of your karma and avoid deep diving in the shallow end.

Gemini: Your mantra this month: loose ends can be fun. Business begun but unfinished, the caretaking of people and work related projects. The payoffs for overtime that started last month continue. Expect unexpected assistance, probably in the form of investment, probably from someone in your inner circle. Use the front half of the month wisely, tend to your garden, and believe in success. Then get out of town with someone close for a little adventure.

Cancer: You'll be hard pressed to find gripes this month so why bother looking? Your spirit, heart, and mind indulge in a friendly menage a trios. Your cup is filled by friends and lovers who finally take the time to tell you what you mean to them. Shine calmly and drink deep, set suspicions aside, and embrace your emotions. Your smile is a balm for more people than you know. Late in the month, domestic matters may unravel a bit. Don't let it ripple your pond.

Leo: Nap time for lions. Not so much basking on your laurels as reflecting on your path. Your recent level of activity could, if continued, short out some circuits. Even good work makes us tired. Fortunately, it's not a time out. Others pick up the ball to free you for serious dreaming. Question essentials. When you started, where were you going? If you didn't have to do anything for money, what would you do? Look to your heart for answers the mind doesn't have.

Virgo: Your natural gifts for discrimination are best applied to the material world. Good work is always rewarded and the rewards should be obvious this month. Recognize the loose ends in your professional life for the opportunities they are. It may be time to expand your network. More hands increase the harvest and there's more than enough wheat in the fields, as long as you don't throw it out with the chaff. Steward your resources and invest in your goals.

Libra: Finally, the month you deserve. Business married to pleasure, perhaps on a trip. Whatever you do bears fruit, along with those things you've already done. The cosmic poker game deals you hand after hand of good cards. As long as you don't bet like a nitwit, you'll leave the month a winner. Your strong suit is also your Achilles heel. Praise and success can be dangerous drugs. Ignore your sense of balance and harmony and you'll see what it gets you.

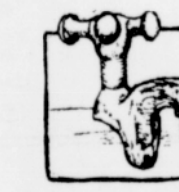

Scorpio: The roll that started last month continues. The engine of your karma is firing on all eight cylinders, fueled by the flow of ideas. Engage the intellect, plow new fields, put new colors in your paint box. Spiritual correlations to the material world become wonderfully clear if you don't cloud them over with reptilian goals. Tinker with your symbol system, redefine fuzzy terms, and communicate the results. There are no excuses for being the second best you.

Sagittarius: You'll be feeling especially tight linked to your mate this month, a good thing as there are depths of understanding still waiting to be plumbed. Sexual matters rear their lovely head which should be stroked with positive energy. Engage the windmills of your finances with the lofty optimism you and Don Quixote are famous for. Align old forms to new status with the energy of spring cleaning. The trick is always to change have-to to want-to.

Capricorn: You'll find it hard to be dour, suspicious, and vengeful this month. Love has a way of distracting us from our fascination with self destructive behavior and it's your turn to be Cupid's pincushion. Indulge all urges to tell those you love how much you love them and why. The noblest path begins with respect and compassion and no playing field fosters their growth more than the bond between friends and lovers. Nothing that matters ever begins tomorrow.

Aquarius: A peachy month for Water Bearers. Your universe given talent for engaging anything and everything focuses on those you work with, your notions of brother/ sisterhood and fairness are water for thirsty souls. Be a walking billboard for the fact that we're all in this together. Your tendency to obsess about health works with you now, the mind/body relationship being seen as a potentially successful marriage. Speaking of romance, your karma brings a pleasant surprise.

Pisces: Aside from minor lapses into short circuitry (feeling like something the cat wouldn't drag in), the month should be a nice ride. You should, in fact, consider going on a long one. Get out of Dodge if you can. Not with desperate urge. Curry the horse of adventure, say yes to change, flirt with romance. Throw a small dinner party, light candles by the tub, scribble epic poetry. Charm the snake of the world from its basket and watch it dance for you.
