

Welcome to your guide to the Street Roots Online Auction

Want to improve your quality of life and help out Street Roots? Look no further.

Trying to figure out what exactly to get your family and friends this holiday season? You've come to the right place. Street Roots has partnered with more than 60 businesses to put together some uniquely Pacific Northwest offerings just for you, both large and small.

Plus, with your support you'll be helping empower social-justice media and economic development for people experiencing homelessness and poverty throughout the Portland region.

Looking for something affordable? We have it. Want annual museum passes, an audio history of a loved one, technology or a health and wellness package? We have that, too. From a satirical front page of Street Roots to fun weekend getaways, there's something for you to get while giving to the organization.

We hope you like to eat, because Street Roots has partnered with some great restaurants for the perfect date or night out with the family.

From a new bike and a team autographed 2009-10 Trail Blazers ball, to lunch with County Chairman Ted Wheeler at his favorite lunch location, to fishing with a vendor, there's something for everyone.
