

Music & Entertainment!

Portland is packed with talented musicians who stand behind Street Roots vendors every day! Here's a sampling of special items available for the fans on your gift list.

Soundgarden had it right! Feel the rhythm in your own hands with a pair of autographed spoons played by Artis the Spoonman, the legend of Soundgarden's hit. This includes two signed CDs from Artis.

All the world is but a stage, and you've got great seats! Invest in the arts and support a good cause with a bid on two tickets to any Portland Center Stage main stage production.

Uniquely PDX!

In our Uniquely PDX section you will find a wide array of some of the coolest items Portland businesses offer, including gifts from Gumbo and Orleans Candle Company in North Portland.

You will also find gifts from the Patagonia, Trade Roots, Physical Element, HELD Vegan Belts, Sweet Jayne and the wonderful Bolt for DIY fabric lovers. And tuck your gifts away for a spell with some space at A-1 Self Storage!

How about a hoodie from Women's Resource Center, or a custom made birdhouse from vendor George Mayes? And urban chicken farmers will find a collectible from Pistil's Nursery in North Portland.

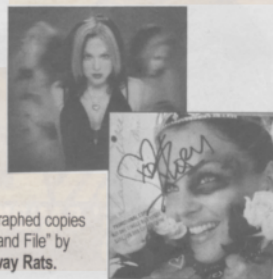

Get passes to the beautiful Chinese Garden, or an annual membership to the Japanese Historical Society along with the book, "In defense of our Neighbors." How about signed copies of Kaia Sand's latest poetry book, "Remember to wave"?

Viva la Vinyl!

The Decemberists are among the cream of Portland's music scene, and fans have got to check out this special gift just for Street Roots: An autographed LP of their latest album, "The Hazards of Love," plus three autographed LP featuring the singles — "Days of Elaine," "Raincoat Song," "Record Year for Rainfall," "Valeria Plame" and "O New England." Check them out at www.streetrootsauction.org!

Storm Large belts out your favorite originals on two autographed CDs — and she's looking good on the signed photos, too! And for folk lovers, pick up one of three autographed copies of "Goodbye to the Rank and File" by Casey Neill and the Norway Rats.

Art & Photography!

Leah Nash, John Ryan Brubaker, Ken Hawkins and Stephen Voss all deliver some great images, including picks of Barack Obama and Jimmy Carter playing ball with Ralph Nader. We also have award-winning shots from Sports Illustrated photographer Bill Frakes and international correspondent Marta Ramoneda. Seriously, these shots will knock your socks off and you can get them for a steal.

Also, a mixed wall sculpture from the late Portland artist Marlene Gabel, and a landscape from one of Portland's finest painters, Renee Hartig. This section seriously rocks. For real.

We're all in luck. One of the Pacific Northwest's most celebrated and talented artist, Nikki McClure has donated three signed prints along with the new (and signed) 2011 calendar. Awesomeness.

Is your dog acting up? We have a dog training from Ain't Misbehaving, and a plethora of pet supplies from Sellwood Dog Supply. Plus, a bucket of biscuits from Leo & Company.

A year's subscription to Bitch Magazine? Yes please!

Get a writing workshop through PDX Writers or an hour of Drupal Consultation from Drupal wizard Jonathan Hedstrom. If you're more hands-on, get rejuvenated with Rejuvenation and rebuild it with The Rebuilding Center! Or read up on the latest ideas with books from St. John's Booksellers!

GRAVITY

Let prison advocate Ruth Kovacs do the cooking for you and your friends with a seven-course Italian or Hungarian dinner — plus lively conversation about her specialty — prison issues!